CHURCH CANDLES. ROME.

Pontifical Church Candles Manufactory.

T. G. FLLI PARISI. PIAZZA CAMPO MARZIO

THE MOST IMPORTANT MANUFACTORY OF CHURCH CANDLES IN ITALY.

Our trade has obtained the favour of the Holy Father Pius X, who has granted it the title of "Pontifical."

Purveyors to the Basilicas of St. John Lateran, St. Peter's Beatifications, and all the most important Basilicas in Rome, Italy and abroad.

The following Candles are manufactured according to the latest decree of the S.C. of Rites:

FOR

HOLY MASS. HOLY WEEK.

FOR QUARANT ORE.

Paschal Candles. Tenebrae Candles. Triple Candles for "Lumen Christi." Processional Tapers. Funeral and other Illuminations.

GUARANTEED QUALITIES.

Goods free of charge on board steamer to any harbour in England or Ireland for orders of not less than 450 lbs. (Packing Gratis). Customers in sending orders have only to indicate length and diameter, as we undertake to supply Candles of every size in each of our qualities.

We have been awarded Medals by Pius IX., Leo XIII., and Pius X., as also in 18 Exhibitions in Italy and elsewhere.

CHRONOLOGICAL CYCLES, 1907.

Golden Numbe	er -	•	8	Dominical Letter	-	f
Epact -	-	-	vvi	Roman Indiction	•	5
Solar Cycle	-	-	12	Julian Period	-	6620

The Dominical or Sunday Letter for any year is that one of the first seven letters of the Alphabet which stands opposite the first Sunday of the year, when the first letter of the Alphabet is placed opposite the first day of the year, the second letter opposite the second day, and so on. It is obvious that if these seven letters be repeated in order opposite the remaining days of the year, the same letter which stood opposite the first Sunday will stand opposite every succeeding Sunday. Hence the use of the Dominical Letter in the Calendar is to indicate the days of the month on which the Sundays will fall in the different years.

Leap years have two Dominical Letters, one of which indicates the Sundays during the months of January and February; the other during the remaining months.

The Dominical Letter for the present year is f.

THE GOLDEN NUMBER of a given year is the number which indicates the place of that year in the lunar cycle. This cycle is a period of nineteen years, and is called the LUNAR YCLE because in every nineteenth year the different lunar phases—new moon, full moon, etc.—happen on the same days of the month, though about one hour and a half earlier in the day. It is also called the METONIC CYCLE, from the name of its discoverer, Meton, an Athenian astronomer, who published his discovery at the Olympic games celebrated in the year 432, B.C. The first year of the Christian era is regarded as the second year of the current lunar cycle; hence we have the following rule for finding the Golden Number of any given year:—Add 1 to the date of the year, and divide the sum by 19; the remainder is the Golden Number. If there is no remainder, the Golden Number is 19. The Golden Number for the present year found by this rule is 8. For

$$1907 + 1 \div 19 = 100_{10}^{e}.$$

The EPACT of any year is the number which represents in days the age of the moon on the 1st January of that year. One lunar month according to the Ecclesiastical Calendar contains 29½ days. Twelve lunar months, therefore, contain 354 days. Hence if the first day of a lunar month coincides with the 1st January of a particular year, the moon's age on the next 1st January (supposing the year to be a common one) will be 365—354, or 11 days. This number, 11, is then the Epact of that second year. For the third year of this series the Epact will be 2 (365—354), or 22; for the fourth year, 3 (365—354), or 33. But when the Epact is equal to or exceeds 30, a month is introduced or intercalated, and the Epact of the year is the remainder after deducting 30. For the fourth year of the above series, therefore, the Epact will be 3, instead of 33

To find the day of the week corresponding to a given day of a given month in a given year from 1850 to 1960 inclusive: .-Find first the year in question in the table on the left: the letter which stands at the head of the column in which the year is found is the Dominical Letter for that year. Proceed now to the table on the right; find the month about which you are inquiring, in the column headed "months;" and opposite this month look for the letter which you have found to be the Dominical Letter for the given year. Look next to the figures at the top of the column in which the letter is contained, and you will there find the days in that month, which are Sundays. and by reckoning backward or forward, the day of the work corresponding with the given date is found. Alexing Mc. - On wins day of the wook and the Foast of Bt. Patrick (March I7) fall in the year 1853, and on wine day of the wook will it fall in the years 1909 and 1940? From the columns on the loft hand we flud the Dominical Letters for the yeurs mentioned to be G, C, and B, resprictively. In the solumns on the right hand we find opposite March G in the fourth, C in the seventh, and B in the sixth. Hence, in the year 1865 the Sundays in March fell on the 6th, 11th, 18th, and 26th, and consequently the 17th, the feast of St. Patrick, fell on Saturday. In 1900 the Sundays of March will fall on the 7th, 14th, 21st, and 23th; and in 1949 on the 6th, 18th, 20th and 27th. In the former year, then, St. Patrick's Day will fall on Wednesday, and in the latter on Thursday.

Find the Dominical Letter for the given year; then the dates of the Sundays for the given mouth in that year, from the second table. In the months of January and February in a leap year the proper line of Dominical Letters must be taken, as indicated in the table. The day of the month corresponding to a given day of the week in any year can also be found from the sume tables. Having found the date of the proceding Sunday, we have only to reckon forward to the given week-day.

January, February March, April, May, June, June, Septemb October, Nevemb

Example. To find the number of days from the 15th June to the 15th March following. Find June in the first column, and then in a line with that under March is 273 days. If it were from the 15th June to the 25th March, it would be 10 days more or 283 days; but if from the 15th June to the 5th March, 11 would be 10 days less, or 263 days. In leap years, when the Last day of February is included between he two dates, there will be one day more than by the table. The Indiction or Cycle of Indiction is a period of 15 years. It has no connection with any ecclesiastical feasts or religious observances and was first employed, it is believed, by Constantine the Great. The Indiction continued to be employed for centuries by Popes and Emperors as a convenient method of reckoning time and of expressing dates. The point of departure of the Indictions was fixed by Pope Gregory VII. (1073-1085) to be the first day of the year 313, A.D. Reckoning backwards we find that the year 1, A.D., was the fourth year of the current Indiction. Hence to find the place of any year of the Christian Era in the current Cycle of Indiction, we have but to add 3 to the date of the year in question and divide the sum by 15. The present year is, therefore, the fifth of the current Indiction. For

$$1907 + 3 \div 15 = 127 + 5$$

CENSUS OF IRELAND, 1901.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

4,458,775 Persons (2,200,040 Males, and 2,258,735 Females) were returned in the Enumerators' Summaries as constituting the population of Ireland on the night of Sunday, the 31st of March—thus showing a decrease since 1891 of 245,975 persons, or 5·3 per cent.—the decrease in the number of males was equal to 5·2 per cent., and the number of females to 5·3 per cent.

There was during the decade a decrease of 41,297 persons, or 3.5 per cent. in the Province of Leinster; 98,568, or 8.4 per cent. in the Province of Munster; 38,463, or 2.4 per cent. in the Province of Ulster; and 69,876, or 9.7 per cent. in the Province of Connaught.

The number of inhabitants in each of the Provinces in all Ireland in 1841, 1851, 1861, 1871, 1881, 1891, and 1901 respectively, and the Decrease between 1891 and 1901 are shown in the Tables on opposite page.

There was an Increase between 1891 and 1901 in the Population of three Counties, viz., Dublin, in which the population increased 7.3 per cent.; Down, 7.3 per cent.; and Antrim, 7.0 per cent.

There was a Decrease in the population of all the other counties, ranging from 5·1 per cent. in Londonderry; 5·7 per cent. in Cork, E.R.; and 5·9 per cent. in Wicklow, to 12·8 per cent. in Roscommon; 13·0 per cent. in Cavan; and 13·6 per cent. in Monaghan.

According to the Summaries furnished by the Enumerators, 3,308,661 persons returned themselves as Catholics, this number being 238,646 or 6.7 per cent. under the number so returned in 1891; 581,089 were returned under the head of "Protestant Episcopalians" being a decrease of 19,014 or 3.2 per cent., compared with the number tabulated under that head in 1891; 443,276 were returned as Presbyterians, being a decrease of 1,698 or 0.4 per cent. compared with 1891; the number of Methodists returned on the present occasion amounts to 62,006, being an increase of 6,506 or 11.7 per cent. on the number returned on the Census Forms in 1891.

Dealing with the instruction in Primary Schools according to religious professions, they find that the percentage of Catholic pupils to the Catholic population was 7.27 in 1861; in 1871, 11·19; in 1881, 13·15; in 1891, 14·74; and in 1901, 14·26. Protestant Episcopalians increased from 9·73 per cent. in 1861, to 12·38 in 1871; to 12·69 in 1881; to 13·56 in 1891; and to 13·82 in 1901; and Preshyterians and all others from 8·04 per cent. in 1861, to 11·58 in 1871; to 12·74 in 1881; and 13·10 in 1891—there being 13·73 per cent. of the Preshyterians in 1881; 15·63 in 1891; and 15·99 in 1901; 10·49 of the Methodists in 1881; 12·39 in 1891; and 12·74 in 1901; and 6·07 in 1881; 7·91 in 1891; and 9·09 in 1901 of "All Other Denominations," under instruction in Primary Schools.

Under the head of Superior Establishments, they find under instruction in them of Catholics, '27 per cent. of the Catholic population in 1861; in 1871, as also in 1881, '30 per cent.; and in 1891, '43 per cent; in 1901, '78; of Protestant Episcopalians, 1'14 per cent.; in 1861 and 1871, of the Protestant Episcopalian population; 1'23 per cent. in 1881; 1'21 per cent. in 1891; and 1'26 per cent. in 1901; and of Presbyterians and all others '59 per cent. in 1891, '72 in 1871, '83 in 1861, and '91 in 1891. The Presbyterians under instruction in superior establishments in 1881 equalled '65, Methodists 1.58, and "All Other Denominations" 1.75 per cent.; in 1891, '75, 1.42, and 1.64 per cent. and in 1901, '82, 1.53, and 1.47 per cent. respectively of the population under each of these headings.

Dealing generally with the numbers under instruction in Irish schools (Primary and Superior), the Census Commissioners find that the percentage to the population was for Catholics, in 1861, 7.54; in 1871, 11.48; in 1881, 13.45; in 1891, 15.17; and in 1901, 15.04; for Protestant Episcopalians, 10.87 per cent. in 1861; 13.52 in 1871; 13.92 in 1881; 14.77 in 1891; and 15.08 in 1901; and for Presbyterians and all others, the percentage amounted to 8.63 in 1861; to 12.30 in 1871, to 13.58 in 1881, and to 15.43 in 1891.

SUPERIOR SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

In 1871, 587 establishments with 24,170 students; in 1881, 504 with 24,693 students; in 1891, 490 with 27,769 students; and in 1901, 510 with 38,564 students, were tabulated under the head of superior schools and colleges.

The following is their distribution according to religions:—

The highest county percentage of persons who could speak Irish in the Province of Leinster is that for the county of Louth—49 per cent of the population. There are 4 counties in this Province in which not one per cent. of the people could speak Irish, viz.:—Carlow, King's, Longford, and Queen's. In Kilkenny, Dublin, and Meath, the percentages were respectively 4.5, 2.2, and 2.0.

In the Province of Munster there are two counties, in 1901, in which the proportion of the population who could speak Irish was under 20 per cent., viz.:—Limerick and Tipperary, in the former of which the percentage was 11.4, and in the latter 6.1.

With the exception of Donegal, there is not any county in Ulster which had, in 1901. 20 per cent. of its population able to speak Irish—the nearest approaches being the counties of Monaghan, Cavan, Tyrone, and Armagh, in which the percentages were respectively 7.1, 5.6, 4.3, 3.6. In neither Antrim nor Down could one per cent. of the population speak Irish.

There are two counties in the Province of Connaught in which not 20 per cent. of the population could speak Irish, viz.:—Leitrim and Roscommon, in which the percentages were 5-8 and 15-1 respectively.

The following statement shows the counties in which over 20 per cent. of the population in 1891 and in 1901 were returned as able to speak the Irish language:—

Province	County	Number 1901	Per-centage to Population 1901	Number 1891	Per-centage to Population 1891
Connaught.	Galway	108,870	56.2	125,565	58.2

Munster,	Cork	97.979	29.8	119,720	27.3
Connaught,	Sligo	17,570	2019	21,336	21-8

From the foregoing statement it will be seen that in eight of the thirty-two counties over 20 per cent. of the population in 1891 and 1901 could speak the Irish language; four of those counties are situate in Munster, three in Connaught, and one in Ulster.

EMIGRATION.

The following statement shows, by ages, the number of Irish emi grants during the ten calendar years 1891-1900:—

Number of Emigrants, 1851-1901.—The total number of Emigrants natives of Ireland—who left Irish ports from the 1st of May, 1851 (the date at which the collection of these returns commenced), to the 31st of March, 1901, is 3,846,393-2,006,421 males and 1,839,972 females. The number for each year is given in the following Table (II.), from which it appears that the highest number in any one year was 190,322 in 1852, and the lowest, 32,241, in 1898. In the decade from 1866 to 1875, the average annual number of Emigrants was 74.667; in the decade 1856 to 1865, the average number per annum amounted to 88,272, and in the four preceding years, from 1852 to 1855, the number averaged 148,985 annually. In 1876 the number fell to 37,587, the lowest number for any of the 26 years, 1851-76. After 1876 it increased steadily, but slowly, for three years to 38,503 in 1877, 41,124 in 1878, and 47,065 in 1879. 1880 the number rose to 95,517, but it fell to 78,417 in 1881. however, an increase of 10,719 took place, and there was a further increase in 1883, in which year the emigrants amounted to 108,724; then a decrease of 32,861 took place in 1884 compared with 1883, and a decrease of 13,829 in 1885 compared with 1884, followed by an increase of 1,101 in 1886, and a further increase of 19,788 in 1887, in which year the number was 82,923. After 1887 there was a gradual annual decline to 35,895 in 1894; in 1895 the number rose to 48,703; it then fell to 38,995 in 1896, to 32,535 in 1897, and to 32,241 in 1898, and (as before stated) it rose to 41,232 in 1899, and to 45,288 in 1900.

was settled and an interest in which accrues on the death to some other person: (c) Property which would be subject to account duty under the Acts of 1881 and 1889 if those Acts were extended to real property and to settlements which are not voluntary: (d) Any annuity purchased by the deceased to the extent of the beneficial interest accruing on the death. (Single annuities not exceeding £25; annuities payable by Governor of British India to widow or child of deceased officer; advowson which would have been free from succession duty under 16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, sec. 24, exempt; objects of National, Scientific, or Historic interest exempt, 59 and 60 Vict. c. 28.)

of the property passing at death all which was at the deceased's own disposition, or goes to his family, will be aggregated, and pay the graduated rate of duty in the schedule on the aggregate value.

SUCCESSION TO REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Where property is settled by the will of the deceased, or passes by his death under some other disposition to a person not competent to dispose of the property, a further duty of 1 per cent., called the Settlement Estate Duty, is payable upon the property so settled.

If the gross value of the property in respect of which estate duty is leviable on the death of the deceased does not exceed £300, a fixed duty of 30s. is payable, and a fixed duty of 50s. when the gross does not exceed £500.

If the net property passing under the will of the deceased does not exceed £1,000, it shall not be aggregated with other property, and, when the proper rate of estate duty has been paid thereon, no further duties are chargeable.

In addition to the estate duty, legacy and succession duties continue to be payable as before when the property passes to persons other than a lineal ascendant or descendant of the testator or intestate.

LAST WILL OR TESTAMENT.

It is important that all who have property to bequeath, or instruce tions to give for the Catholic education of their children, should make their wills while their health and faculties are unimpaired. Instead of trusting in printed forms and directions, it is always better to obtain the help of an experienced lawyer. A will must be written in ink, on paper or parchment. It must be signed at the end by the testator, in the presence of two or more witnesses, and he should, after signing it, take it in his hands and say: "I acknowledge this to be my last Will and Testament, and request you to witness it." The witnesses (who must be parties not interested in the Will) will then sign in the presence of the testator, and of each other, writing fully and clearly their name, surname, residence, and trade or profession, &c. It is not absolutely necessary for the witnesses to know the contents of a Will. Obliterations and alterations should be avoided, and when they are necessary should be signed by the testator and witnesses.

THE CATHOLIC HIERARCHY.

HIS HOLINESS THE POPE,
BISHOP OF ROME, AND VICAR OF JESUS CHRIST,
SUCCESSOR OF ST. PETEB, PRINCE OF THE APOSTLES, SUPREME PONTIFF OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH,
PATRIABCH OF THE WEST, PRIMATE OF ITALY,
ARCHBISHOP AND METROPOLITAN OF THE ROMAN PROVINCE, SOVEREIGN OF THE TEMPORAL DOMINIONS OF THE

PIUS X.

HOLY ROMAN CHURCH.

SUPREME PONTIFF,

Now GLOBIOUSLY REIGNING.

JOSEPH SARTO,

The two hundred and fifty-ninth successor of St. Peter, was born at Riese, diocese of Treviso, June 2nd, 1835; appointed Bishop of Mantua November 10th, 1884; proclaimed Cardinal June 12th, 1893; appointed Patriarch of Venice, June 15th, 1893; elected Pope, August 4th, and crowned August 9th, 1903. His Holiness retains the Prefectship of the Holy Roman and Universal Inquisition or Holy Office, of the Consistorial Congregation, and of the Apostolic Visitation; the Protectorship of the Church and Chapter of SS. Celsus and Julianus, of the Archconfraternity of the Via Crucis, and of the Sacred Stigmata of St. Francis.

The Supreme Pontifi is assisted in the government of the Church by the Sacred College of Cardinals, and by several sacred congregations of which the Cardinals are the chief members; by the Patriarchs, Archbishops and Bishops; by the Apostolic Delegates, Vicars and Prefects, and by certain Abbots and Prelates.

THE CARDINALS.

The Sacred College of Cardinals consists, when it is complete, of seventy members:—Six Cardinal Bishops, fifty Cardinal Priests, and fourteen Cardinal Deacons. The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the supreme council or senate of the Church. They are the advisers of the Sovereign Pontifi, and at the death of a Pope they elect his successor. The Cardinal Bishops occupy the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are, Ostia and Velletri, Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Frascati, Palestrina, Sabina. The Cardinals of the second and third order take their titles from some of the oldest churches in the City of Rome. The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon, First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning a new Pope. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the administration of the affairs of the Holy See,

The above Summary of Archiepiscopal and Episcopal Residential Sees amounts in all to 998. But in this list we do not include districts governed by Prefects Apostolic and Apostolic Vicars, who exercise episcopal functions and jurisdiction under the Propaganda.

THE ROMAN CONGREGATIONS.

THE CONGREGATION OF THE HOLY OFFICE.

This Congregation, erected and constituted by Pope Paul III. in the year 1542, was approved and enriched with many privileges by his successors Pius IV., Pius V., and Sixtus V. Its object was to combat heresy and false doctrines, and to restrain heretics from injuring religion and the Church. The Pope himself is always Prefect of this Congregation, and the Dean of the Sacred College of Cardinals its Secretary. The Chief Commissary of the Congregation must belong to the Dominican Order and the Province of Lombardy. Two of its Consultors must also belong to the Dominicans, and one to the Minor Conventuals.

CONGREGATION OF PROPAGANDA.

This Congregation was founded by Pope Gregory XV. in 1622. The Pope in his Constitution Inscrutabili conferred upon it the most ample powers for the Propagation of the Faith, and especially for the superintendence of missions in countries where heretics or infidels had to be evangelised. For this purpose it could not only appoint and change the necessary ministers in the countries specially submitted to its care, but also perform everything else it considered either necessary or opportune for the advancement of religion in such districts and provinces. The jurisdiction proper of the Congregation extends to all territories which are governed "more missionum," or as missionary countries, i.e., not by hishops constituted in the regular hierarchy, but by Prefects and Vicars Apostolic. Certain countries, even where the regular hierarchy is established, such as Ireland, England, and Scotland, and the United States, are likewise subject to the Congregation, and transact almost all their business with the Roman Curia through it. Hence, applications for dispensations, etc., are addressed to this Congregation through its Secretary. The Congregation has, moreover, a legislative and judicial power; and by authority conferred upon it by Gregory XV., and confirmed by Urban VIII. and Innocent X., its decrees, signed by the Secretary, and confirmed by the Prefect, have the force and authority of an Apostolic Constitution.

All communications should be written in Latin, or, at least, in French or Italian, and addressed to the Secretary as follows:

A Sua Eccellenza Revma.,

Il Signor Segretario della Congregazione,

di Propaganda Fide,

Rome.

The present Prefect is Cardinal Jerome Maria Gotti and the Secretary, Mgr. Aloisi Veccia.

CONGREGATION OF THE COUNCIL.

This Congregation was founded by Pius IV., for the purpose of promoting the observance of the decrees of the Council of Trent. To this Pius V. added the interpretation of these decrees and the decision of all controversies arising from them. In 1587, this Congregation was also commissioned by Pope Sixtus V. to revise the decrees of all provincial Councils, and to see that all Bishops paid, at the time required by the Canons, their visits, "ad limina apostolorum," and submitted to the Holy See a report of their dioceses. Benedict XIV., however, appointed a special Congregation in connection with the Council, for the purpose of examining the Decrees of National and Provincial Synods, and a similar one was constituted by Pius IX., for the special purpose of attending to the visits and reports of Patriarchs, Archbishops, and Bishops.

CONGREGATION OF THE INDEX.

This Congregation was founded by Pius V., and confirmed by Gregory XIII., Sixtus V., and Clement VIII. Its office is to examine books submitted to its judgment by Bishops or others, and to proscribe those it finds opposed to faith and morals. An Index or catalogue of wicked and dangerous books had already been drawn up at the Council of Trent, and approved by Pope Pius IV. Hence the name.

CONGREGATION OF RITES.

This Congregation was instituted by Sixtus V., for the purpose of promoting the observance of the Sacred Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, and of restoring and reforming them when necessary. It was also charged with the process of the Canonization of Saints, and with the regulation of the days to be observed as feasts in the Church, and was bound besides to see that all Kings. Princes, Ambassadors, and other exalted personages, whether lay or clerical, were received with becoming dignity and honour at the Papal Court. These are the duties which it still performs.

CONGREGATION OF BISHOPS AND REGULARS.

This Congregation was founded by Gregory XIII. and Sixtus V., for the arrangement of the rights and privileges of Bishops and of the Regular Orders established in the Church. Hence all cases of appeal against the Bishops' decisions, whether by seculars or regulars, is referred to it. It is also entrusted with the revision and approbation of the rules of religious bodies.

CONGREGATION OF EXTRAORDINARY ECCLESIASTICAL AFFAIRS.

Founded by Pius VII. in 1814, to assist the Cardinal Secretary of State in maintaining proper relations with foreign countries, especially in times of revolution and disturbance. All concordats and relations with foreign governments come under its supervision. It consists of eight Cardinals, one Secretary, and two Consultors.

CONGREGATION OF INDULGENCES AND SACRED RELICS.

Founded by Pope Clement IX. in 1669, for the purpose of solving all doubts and difficulties concerning indulgences and relics, correcting abuses relating thereto, forbidding apocryphal, false, or indiscreet indulgences, examining relics newly discovered, etc., etc. General indulgences obtained directly from the Sovereign Pontiff are null and void, unless a copy of such concession be deposited with the Secretary of this Congregation.—Decretum Benedicti XIV., 28th Jan., 1756.

CONGREGATION OF RESIDENCE OF BISHOPS.

Many laws exist, differing according to circumstances, obliging Bishops to reside in their diocese. Urban VIII. established this Congregation for the purpose of seeing that these laws were observed. The rules to be followed by the Congregation were laid down by Benedict XIV., and are now part of the Canon Law.

CONGREGATION OF ECCLESIASTICAL IMMUNITY.

Instituted by Urban VIII. to protect and defend lawful ecclesiastical immunities against the encroachment and attacks of civil magistrates and secular communities. Most of the cases submitted to this Congregation for examination and judgment arose in the Papal States. Conflicts and controversies regarding concordats with other countries are now generally decided by the Cardinal Secretary of State, assisted by the members of the Congregation of Extraordinary Ecclesiastical Affairs.

CONGREGATION OF REGULAR DISCIPLINE.

This Congregation was established by Innocent XII. to promote the observance of discipline in monasteries and convents, to regulate the time to be spent in novitiates, to grant licences for the reception of postulants, and for their training and profession, etc., etc.

CONGREGATION OF THE STATE OF REGULARS.

Pope Pius IX. restricted the jurisdiction of the preceding Congregation to Italy and the adjacent islands, and established the new Congregation of the State of Regulars to perform similar duties for countries outside of Italy.

CONGREGATION OF THE CONSISTORIAL.

The office of this Congregation is to examine and discuss what are the questions which call for a formal pronouncement of the Pope at a private or public Consistory. It inquires particularly into the applications for the erection of new churches, patriarchal, matropolitan, and cathedral; regulates all about chapters, the number of canonicates, etc., and decides controversies arising therefrom. The Congregation was founded by Sixtus V. in 1588.

CONGREGATIONS OF THE APOSTOLIC VISIT AND LAURETANÆ.

These two Congregations were established to regulate the visits to the churches and holy places in the City of Rome, and the privileges attached thereto, and to have charge of the Shrine and Sanctuary of Loretto.

CONGREGATION OF CEREMONIAL.

This Congregation arranges all the Pontifical ceremonies, and decides questions of participation and precedence in them.

CONGREGATION OF THE FABRIC OF ST. PETER.

This Congregation was founded for the administration and preservation of St. Peter's, and for the realization of pious bequests.

CONGREGATIONS OF EXAMINATION OF BISHOPS AND OF STUDIES.

These two Congregations were established, the former for the examination in Theology and Canon Law of Roman priests named for the Episcopate, and the latter for the advancement of studies and education generally in Rome and the Papal States.

3rish Ecclesiastical Register.

IRELAND is divided, ecclesiastically, into four Provinces, named after the four Archiepiscopal Sees, Armagh, Dublin, Cashel, and Tuam, which are not coincident with the civil Provinces, in which they are respectively situated. The Province of Armagh, containing the Primatial See of All Ireland, embraces, besides the civil Province of Ulster, the whole or portions of the counties of Louth, Meath, Westmeath, King's, and Longford, in Leinster; of Leitrim, Sligo, and Roscommon, in Connaught: the Province of Dublin, under the Primate of Ireland, contains a portion only of the civil Province of Leinster, embracing the whole or portions of the counties of Dublin, Kildare, Wicklow, Queen's, Wexford, Carlow, King's and Kilkenny; the Province of Cashel is mainly coincident with the civil Province of Munster; whilst the Province of Tuam is smaller than the civil Province of Connaught, and includes the whole or portions of the counties of Galway, Mayo, Sligo, Roscommon, Clare, and King's.

The Province of Armagh includes the Diocese of Armagh, with the Dioceses of Meath, Ardagh, Clogher, Derry, Down and Connor, Dromore, Kilmore, and Raphoe, as Suffragan Sees; total, nine Dioceses.

The Province of Dublin includes the Diocese of Dublin with the Dioceses of Ferns, Kildare and Leighlin, and Ossory, as Suffragan Sees; total, four Dioceses.

The Province of Cashel includes the Diocese of Cashel, with the Diocese of Emly attached, the Dioceses of Cork, Cloyne, Killaloe, Kerry, Kilfenora, Limerick, Ross, Waterford and Lismore, as Suffragan Sees; total, nine Dioceses. The Diocese of Kilfenora is assigned to the Bishop of Galway as its Apostolic Administrator.

The Province of Tuam includes the Diocese of Tuam, with the Dioceses of Achrony, Clonfert, Elphin, Galway and Kilmacduagh, and Killala, as Suffragan Sees; total, six Dioceses.

There are, thus, four Provinces, each presided over by an Archbishop, and twenty-four Suffragan Sees, or a total of twenty-eight Dioceses in Ireland.

Clergy Lists.—In every case the Diocesan Clergy List has been revised by the Bishop or his Secretary, and this is a guarantee, so far as can be secured, of the accuracy of the information supplied.

Chapters —In many of the Dioceses the Chapters have been revived and organised, the members of which, together with the principal Dignitaries of the Diocese, will be found under the heading of the respective Sees.

Parishes and Benefices.—The number of civil or legal Parishes in Ireland is 2,428, and the number of Catholic Parishes or Benefices marked by territorial jurisdiction, 1,087, so that the civil and the Catholic ecclesiastical Parishes are rarely conterminous. The number of Parishes or Benefices in the Dis-Established Church, is 1,510. Catholics have the deepest interest in adhering to the primitive designation and orthography of the several territorial divisions, Diocesan and Parochial, of the Irish Church, as a classified analysis of the derivation, origin, and history of such designations would form a vast and most important body of evidence testifying to the intimate connexion which subsists between the faith of the people and the very topography of the kingdom.

Public Institutions.—All Public Institutions in each Diocese, having Catholic Chaplains attached, as Workhouses, Lunatic Asylums, County, City, and Government Prisons, Military Barracks, &c., are published.

Regular Clergy.—The usual Diocesan Returns of the Regular Clergy will be found under each Diocesa. Moreover all the Communities of each Order in Ireland or of Irish branches abroad are set forth under the heading, "List of the Regular Clergy."

Religious Communities of Men and of Women.—Diocesan and other Returns are published of these Orders, with such information respecting each as may be expected in a Registry.

Educational Institutions.—These are fully considered under each Diocese, and are also indicated in a special section devoted to the position of Catholic Education in Ireland.

Charitable Institutions.—Orphanages, Asylums, Refuges, Hospitals, Reformatories, Industrial Schools, &c., will be found under the respective Dioceses in which they exist.

Obituary.—Diocesan Returns, obtained from the Bishops themselves, give an authentic list of the Clergy, &c., who died within the past year.

State and Progress of Religion.—Summaries, under various Heads, supplied by the Bishops, or prepared from their Returns, are given, indicating the state of Religion in the Diocese. We also give the Catholic and non-Catholic population of each Diocese for the years 1861, 1871, 1881, 1891, and 1901.

Smith, Esq., Lecturer on Drawing and Manual Instruction; John Delaney, Esq., R.A.M., Professor of Music; R. J. Martyn, Esq., M.D., Physician; H. Franklin, Violin Master; E. Fitzgerald, S.O.S.A., Drill Master.

In Sligo there are the excellent Ursuline Boarding and Day Schools. There are Female Industrial Schools attached to the Convents of Mercy in Sligo, Roscommon, and Summerhill. Inmates, 420.

Primary Schools.—Large Convent Schools in Sligo, Roscommon, Elphin, Boyle, Athlone, Gastlerea, and Strokestown, attended by over 2,500 girls. The Parochial Schools, under secular teachers, now exceed in number 320. Model Schools have been erected and opened in Sligo in defiance of the protests of the Bishop, and of the adverse decision of all the prelates of the province assembled in Synod; but no Catholic pupil enters their unhallowed walls, and supported at an immense expense from the public taxes, there they stand a monument of British aggression upon Catholic rights, and also of Catholic fidelity to the voice of their pastors.

Marist Brothers' Institute, Sligo—Ordinary Day Schools. St. Patrick's Juniorate or Preparatory Novitiate. Superior, Rev. Brother Ricard.

Marist Brothers' School, Castlerea.

Presentation Brothers, Mount Saint Patrick, Boyle—Day Schools and Technical Schools—Superior Rev. Brother J. J. O'Sullivan.

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS.

The Institute of the Christian Brothers, founded in 1802 by the revered Edmond Ignatius Rice, was formally approved and confirmed in 1820 by a Brief of the Sovereign Pontiff Pope Pius VII. of happy memory.

Since that time it has received many special marks of favour from succeeding Popes—Pius VIII., Gregory XVI., Pius IX., Leo XIII., and Pius X.

The main object of the Brothers, after their own sanctification, is the Christian education of youth, to which, after due preparation, they entirely and irrevocably devote themselves.

The most suitable age for postulants to enter the novitiate is between 16 and 25; those seeking admission must possess the talents necessary to prosecute the course of studies prescribed by the Institute for its members.

The Juniorate is at Baldoyle, Co. Dublin, where boys between the ages of fourteen and sixteen, who seek admission to the Institute, are received and educated preparatory to their entering the Novitiate and Training College at St. Mary's, Marino.

All seeking admission should have letters of recommendation from their spiritual director or parish priest; they should also present their baptismal certificates.

Further particulars may be obtained by applying to the Christian Brothers, St. Mary's, Marino, Dublin, where the Superior General, Rev. Brother J. C. Whitty, and his Assistants, Rev. Brothers P. A. Treacy, T. I. O'Neill, P. J. Hennessy, and S. H. Butler, reside.

BROTHERS OF ST. PATRICK.

The Institute of the Brothers of St. Patrick or Patrician Brothers was founded at Tullow, Co. Carlow, in 1808, by the Right Rev. Daniel Delany, D.D., Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin.

It was formally approved by Decree of the late Pope Leo XIII., on the 6th January, 1888, and confirmed by Decree of 8th September, 1893.

The special end of the members of this Congregation, after their own

Sanctification, is the Christian Education of youth.

Postulants are admitted between the ages of 15 and 25 years. It is of the first importance that the applicants for admission should belong to good religious families of irreproachable character, and that they should have a fixed determination to devote themselves to the service of God in the Congregation. Talented native Irish speakers are specially desirable, and will be admitted on easy terms. The Novitiate and the House of Students are in Tullow, the residence of the Superior General, Rev. Br. Jerome F. O'Byrne, and his Assistants Rev. Br. Malachy P. Carew, Rev. Br. Benedict L. Whelan, Rev. Br. Alphonsus M. Delaney, Pev. Br. Ambrose J. Campion.

Applications should be made to the Rev. Br. Superior General, St.

Patrick's Monastery, Tullow, Co. Carlow.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF IRELAND.

(FOUNDED 1854.)

Supreme Governing Body:

THE CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS OF IRELAND.

Rector; Most Rev. Patrick O'Donnell, D.D., Bishop of Raphoe.

At a meeting of the Catholic Bishops of Ireland, held at Clonliffe College in October, 1882, it was resolved that the Catholic University should consist in future, not of one College only, but of several, which, while retaining their own separate and independent organisations, should co-operate together for the advancement of higher Catholic Education. It was further resolved that the Catholic University should, under present circumstances, send up its students for the examinations and degrees of the Royal University of Ireland.

In accordance with this new organisation, the Catholic University now consists of the following Colleges: -

St. Patrick's College, Maynooth:

President—The Right Rev. Mgr. Daniel Mannix, D.D. University College, St. Stephen's Green, Dublin:

President-The Very Rev. W. Delany, S.J., LL.D.

RECORD OF IRISH ECCLESIASTICAL EYENTS

FOR THE YEAR 1906.

JANUARY.

JANUARY I.—A manifesto has been issued to the electors of Ireland by the Irish National Temperance Executive, setting forth in convincing terms the need for temperance reforms. Having quoted the resolutions adopted by the Irish Catholic Bishops in the National Synod held in 1875, and those adopted at a representative national conference held in Dublin, in 1899, the manifesto says: "Reforms are urgently needed, but they can be obtained only by your sending to the House of Commons men who will work and vote for them. This can be most effectively done by making sure that the candidate selected is in favour or temperance reform. The issue is now in your hands, Respond to the appeal of the Most Rev. Archbishop Ireland, a worthy representative of millions of our race in America, who in his famous 'Message to Ireland,' says: 'In God's name take the matter in hand and blot out from the fair face of Erin that stigma which attaches to it before the nations of the world.'"

JANUARY I.—The Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe, has issued a powerful plea for total abstinence to his people, in the course of which he says no man has better health or more enjoyment than the total abstainer; and out of self-respect, and to end the reproach upon our race, as well as to guard against a deadly danger, our young people should be careful not to know the taste of intoxicating drinks. For the sake of Faith and Fatherland alike, his Lordship writes, let the young people at the opening of the twentieth century do the noble service to Ireland of being the generation to break once for all the woeful habit of using intoxicants. A celebration is to be held annually in every parish of the diocese of Raphoe, for those who have taken the pledge until the age of twenty-one. It will be partly religious and partly social.

JANUARY 3.—At a conference of temperance reformers held in Dublin to-day, the Right Hon. Lord Clonbrock in the chair, important proposals for legislation were unanimously adopted, and a committee appointed to act in concert with existing associations for the promotion of reforms in the licensing laws. Among the letters received sympathising with the object of the meeting was one from his Eminence Cardinal Logue, who expressed the opinion that anything which would contribute to reduce the number of public-houses, especially in small country towns and rural districts, would operate most effectually for the promotion of temperance. His Eminence also held that unless some means were found to discriminate between the man who took refreshment because he was obliged to travel, and the man who travelled because he wished to get refreshment, the Sunday Closing Act would become a farce.

JANUARY 4.—In St. Mary's Church, Navan, Co. Meath, a meeting of the parish priests of the diocese, presided over by His Eminence Cardinal I.ogue, was held, to select three names for submission to the Holy See, with a view to the appointment of a successor to the Most Rev. Dr. Gaffney. After long deliberation, the following selection was made: -Monsignor Gaughran, Vicar-Capitular (dignissimus), 43 votes; Very Rev. Father Callary, P.P., V.F., Tullamore, 6 votes; Very Rev. Dr. Dooley, P.P., V.F., Killucan, 4 votes; Very Rev. Denis Flynn, President, St. Finian's Seminary, Navan, 2 votes; Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, Bishop of Ross, 1 vote; Very Rev. Joseph Geoghegan, Phibsboro', 1 vote.

JANUARY 12.—In a letter to the Freeman, Dr. O'Dwyer criticises adversely the line of action adopted by the United Irish League of Great Britain with regard to the General Election. His Lordship says that anyone who has studied politics since the Union must allow that Ireland's representatives will get just as much as they can enforce, and not one hair's breadth more. Therefore, it seemed to him a most suicidal policy to ask the Irish in England to throw all their votes solidly for the Liberals, and thus swell their majority into such magnitude that the Government might snap its fingers at the Irish Party.

Complete popular control is, writes His Lordship, the watchword of the Liberals on the school question. They make no secret about it. Every one of them is pledged to it. That means complete Protestant control of Catholic schools. The Borough Council of any English town can then turn out the nuns and priests and put in declared infidels, Agnostics, or members of any Protestant sect, to teach Catholic children.

JANUARY 18.—At the Parochial House, Cloyne, Right Rev. Dr. Cotter, Auxiliary Bishop of Portsmouth, was presented to-day with a beautifully-wrought chalice and set of vestments by the priests of his native diocese of Cloyne.

FEBRUARY.

FEBRUARY 4.—His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin presided over a very large gathering in the Father Mathew Memorial Hall, Church street, Dublin, in celebation of the twenty-sixth anniversary of its foundation, and spoke hopefully on the prospects of temperance legislation. Speeches were delivered by the Lord Mayor, Mr. W. H. K. Redmond, M.P.; Mr. P. J. O'Neill, J.P.; Rev. Father Aloysius, and others.

FEBRUARY 5.—In the Court of Appeal, which consisted of the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Chief Baron, and Lord Justice Fitzgibbon, judgment was given to-day in the case of O'Hanlon v. His Eminence Cardinal Logue. The case was an appeal by His Eminence against an order of the Master of the Rolls declaring that a gift under the will of the late Eliza Ellen M'Loughlin, of Portadown, for Masses for the repose of the souls of her husband, her children, and herself was void, because there was no direction that the Masses should be celebrated in public. The Lord Chancellor held that the bequest was valid. The Lord Chief Baron concurred, and delivered a learned judgment, in which he held that the pious character of the gift was what really constituted a charity. He was satisfied that the celebration of the Masses, whether in private or in public, was a charitable act. Lord Justice Fitzgibbon, who agreed with his colleagues, said that his excuse for adding anything to the judgment delivered by the Chief Baron was that he believed a principle vital to religious equality beyond any denominational interest to be involved in the decision of the Court.

FEBRUARY 11.—Nowhere more deeply than in Ireland will the news of the death of His Eminence Cardinal Perraud, Bishop of Autun, be mourned. Born at Lyons, in 1828, the Cardinal so far back as the early sixties of the last century made a lengthy tour through Ireland, and, on his return to France, published a work descriptive of the deplorable condition of the country. He denounced in scathing terms the injustice inflicted on the majority of the people by the Ascendancy faction. Cardinal Perraud's last visit to Ireland was during the O'Connell Centennial celebration of 1875.

FEBRUARY 16.—The Very Rev. William Delany, S.J., has addressed a letter to the press, in which he says that a committee of Catholic laymen has been formed in the County Cavan for the purpose of establishing a local Scholarship Fund in connection with the Central Catholic Scholarship Committee in Dublin. Among the resolutions adopted at the first meeting were the following:—

"That while waiting anxiously for a settlement of the University Question, we cheerfully respond to the invitation of the Bishops to give help in making some temporary provision, whereby young Catholic students of distinguished ability may be enabled to obtain under Catholic teaching and in Catholic surroundings, the Higher Education which would fit them to serve their country with distinction and usefulness in the various walks of life.

"That we accordingly establish for the purpose a Scholarship Fund, called the Cavan Scholarship Fund, under the management of a local committee in communication with the Catholic Scholarship Campittee in Dublin ship Committee in Dublin.

"That the Scholarship hereby established shall be awarded to the most distinguished student who is a native of the County Cavan, and is duly qualified. In the absence of a native of Cavan, it may be awarded to such candidate as the Catholic Scholarship Committee think fit."

A sum of £55 8s. 4d. was contributed, and forwarded to Dr. Delany as the first instalment of the County Cavan Catholic Scholarship Fund.

A similar Committee for the same purpose has been formed in the Co. Leitrim.

The resolutions set forth above were adopted also by the Co. Leitrim Committee, and a sum of f_{50} was forwarded to the Central Catholic Scholarship Fund, as a first contribution from the Co. Leitrim.

FEBRUARY 18.—An Encyclical (Vchementer nos) addressed by the Pope to the Bishops, clergy, and people of France on the Separation Law is published to-day. It briefly relates the history of the irreligious campaign which has resulted in Separation; vindicates the attitude of the Holy See; protests against the new law itself and the manner in which its enactment was secured; and deplores the disasters which must result to the Church and France. It does not give explicit directions to the Bishops as to the course to be pursued in face of the new law, but the Pope promises to issue practical instructions at the opportune moment.

FEBRUARY 21.—The Pope held a Consistory to-day, at which he delivered an important Allocution dealing with the troubles which confront the Church in France. He then preconised nineteen Bishops to fill the French Sees now vacant. Cardinal Logue was present at this memorable Consistory.

FEBRUARY 25.—The newly-appointed French Bishops were consecrated to-day in St. Peter's by the Pope himself.

FEBRUARY 25.—The Pastorals of the Irish Bishops were read to-day in the Churches throughout the country. They treat principally of the Education question as it affects Catholics in Ireland and England, of Temperance, and Emigration.

MARCH.

MARCH 3.—His Eminence Cardinal Logue was received in private audience by the Pope to-day. The audience, which was most cordial, lasted half an hour. His Holiness inquired in the most affectionate manner about Ireland, saying he was glad to hear such good reports about the religious state of that country.

MARCH 7.—At a meeting of the Senate of the Royal University held to-day, the following resolution was adopted, on the motion of the Most Rev. Dr. O'Dwyer, Bishop of Limerick:—

"That the report of the Royal Commission in its animadversions on this University as an examining body indicated truly the essential defects in its constitution, and we believe that its reform in this respect so as to making it a teaching University, with colleges adequately constituted and brought into organic connection with it, is a matter of urgent need, both for the University itself and the interests of higher education in this country."

MARCH 9.—The Archbishop of Dublin, in replying to the address presented to him by the staff of St. Vincent's Hospital, criticised severely the methods in vogue in the Medical School of Trinity College. His Grace said that in the Catholic University School of Medicine the work done by the students was tested by an independent public authority, whereas Trinity College selected its own subjects of study, fixed its own programmes in these subjects, followed its own methods of teaching, set up its own standard, examined its own students, and as a result granted them degrees. He quoted some of the ridiculous answers of candidates at the Trinity College examinations, who, he said, went off with the honour and glory of a Trinity College degree.

MARCH II.—Irish Language Week was inaugurated in Dublin to-day by the usual procession through the streets. Notwith-standing the inclement weather, the procession was larger than that of last year, and so also was the number of sympathizers that lined the route.

The educational section of the procession was admittedly the largest and most imposing. It consisted mostly of boys from Christian Brothers' schools of the city and suburbs. The temperance section, too, was most imposing. It was led by the Boys' Brigade, Church Street.

At Smithfield, where the procession came to a close, over 30,000 gathered. His Grace the Archbishop was unable to be present, owing to a cold which he had contracted the previous day, but he sent a letter regretting his inability to attend. A resolution was proposed and carried unanimously asking for such radical reform of the Board of National Education as would make it representative of the people of Ireland.

MARCH 16.—His Eminence Cardinal Logue was present at the Lenten sermon at the Vatican, together with the Pope and the other Cardinals. The Irish Cardinal was afterwards received in farewell audience by the Holy Father, who granted in the most cordial manner all that his Eminence acked. The Pontiff said that he put the Irish among his favoured children, and imparted to them his heartfelt benediction. Cardinal Logue presented £1,150, collected in Ireland, for the victims of the earthquake in Calabria. The sum included £112 from the Archdiocese of Armagh, £235 from Limerick, £196 from Cashel, £85 from Derry, £60 from Dromore, £50 from Down and Connor, etc. His Holiness was most touched, and asked Cardinal Logue to thank the donors warmly.

MARCH 17.—The most notable feature of the celebration of the Feast of St. Patrick this year was the extensive use made of the Irish language in the pulpit. Irish sermons were preached in the Pro-Cathedral, Dublin, in the Cathedrals of Tuam, Ennis. Killarney and Letterkenny, and in numerous other churches throughout the country. The campaign to secure the closing of public houses on St. Patrick's Day was generally successful, but in Dublin and some other large cities many licensed traders defied public opinion by keeping their premises open.

MARCH 18.—The annual Irish religious celebration took plac in Westminster Cathedral to-day. The Archbishop of Westminster presided, and fully 6,000 people were present. After the recitation of the Rosary in Irish, and the singing of Irish hymns, an Irish sermon was preached by the Very Rev. Canon MacFadden, P.P., Glenties, Co. Donegal. Then followed Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the singing of an old Irish Latin Litany of the Saints.

In Glasgow Cathedral the 'Archbishop of Glasgow presided at a special Irish service. An Irish sermon was preached by Father Crenan, of Riverstown, Co. Sligo.

MARCH 20.—The Catholic Education Council, a body representative of the sixteen Catholic dioceses of England and Wales, have issued a statement of their position in regard to education, in view of impending legislation in the present session of Parliament. The determination at which the Council has arrived is:—

(1) That no settlement of the education question can be accepted by Catholics which takes away from Catholic parents their right (a) to have for their children Catholic schools, in which the teachers shall be Catholics, and shall give definite religious instruction under Catholic control during school hours; (b) to have new Catholic schools recognized and maintained, and enlargement of existing schools sanctioned where the needs of the Catholic population so demand.

(2) That no settlement can be accepted which does not safeguard the Catholic character of Catholic schools, either by retaining the existing proportion and powers of the foundation managers, or by some equally effectual means.

(3) That no settlement can be accepted which does not provide for the continuance and maintenance of existing Catholic training colleges and Catholic pupil teachers' centres, and which does not grant facilities for extending the means of giving Catholic training to Catholic teachers.

(4) That any proposal to lease, rent, or assign Catholic schools to the local education authority cannot but be viewed with grave anxiety, and that any such proposal which conflicts with their character must be rejected.

The manifesto is signed by the Duke of Norfolk, chairman, and by the Secretary of the Council.

MARCH 22.—At the close of an interesting debate in the House of Commons, raised by a motion of Mr. Murphy, on the question of Irish education—University, Intermediate, and Primary—the Irish Chief Secretary made an important and sympathetic speech. He dealt very fully with the needs of Irish education in all its branches, spoke sympathetically of the Catholic demand for Higher Education, and was even more sympathetic on the question of the teaching of the Irish language. As to the University Question, he had not as yet time, he said, to definitely formulate any proposals, but the matter would have his most earnest and careful attention. There was no use in proposing a scheme of settlement until there was a satisfactory prospect of carrying it. He favoured the amalgamation of the Primary and Intermediate Education Boards, the separate working and over lapping of which was a source of serious educational disadvantage. There was not one branch of Irish education, he added, which could at present be considered satisfactory, but Irish public opinion was not yet ripe for all the reforms which were necessary. His proposals would embrace the improvement of the status and payment of National teachers, and the condition of the schools. A valuable and interesting feature of the debate was a very sympathetic speech of Mr. Butcher, the member for Cambridge University, also the declaration of Sir Edward Carson, member for Trinity College, that he was not opposed to a Catholic University.

MARCH 28.—Right Rev. Monsignor Molloy delivered a most interesting lecture on "Electrical Induction" in University College, St. Stephen's Green, Dublin. He showed clearly that the induction coil was invented by Rev. Dr. Callan, Professor of Physics, Maynooth College, in the year 1836.

MARCH 29.—Replying to a misleading statement made by Mr. T. W. Russell. M.P., in a letter to the Freeman's Journal in connection with the Report of the Royal Commission on University Education, and the action of the Irish Bishops at the time when it was issued, the Archbishop of Dublin says he for one will never acquiesce in any settlement of the University question that does not take for its starting point the establishment in Dublin of a great Central University College, a college constructed on lines acceptable to the Catholic people of this Catholic country, set up with every possible provision that can be made to secure the efficiency of its teaching, and, in the dignity of its buildings." in "the emoluments of its teachers," in the adequateness of its "equipment," and in every other advantage with which it is within the power of the State to endow it, placed in such a position that it will no longer be open to the Catholics of Dublin and of Ireland to point to Trinity College as a standing monument of the favour shown by English statesmen to the Protestant minority, as distinct from the vast Catholic majority of the people of Ireland.

APRIL.

APRIL I.—His Eminence Cardinal Logue, speaking to-day at Armagh, in reply to an address of welcome on his return from Rome, expressed the sympathy of Irish Catholics with the Catholics of France in their present trials. Irish Catholics had special reason to sympathize with them, because during their own days of persecution they had not better friends in Europe than the French Catholics. He also referred to the grave danger which now threatens the Catholic schools of England.

APRIL 16.—At the opening of a new library in Drogheda, His Eminence Cardinal Logue referred to the Education Bill. The question, he said, was one on which he felt deeply. Anything that tended to the banishment of God from the schools was the first sign of material decay in a nation. It was, he declared, impossible to have honest and useful citizens without giving the youth of the country a proper religious education. In neighbouring countries where God had been banished from the schools, so far as man could do it, such action had not been for the temporal success of those countries.

APRIL 18.—Father Martin, General of the Jesuits, died to-day at Rome. He was born in Spain in 1846, entered the Society of Jesus in 1864, and was elected General in 1892.

APRIL 23.—A public meeting was held in the Mansion House, Dublin, presided over by the Lord Mayor, to express sympathy with the sufferers in the great San Francisco disaster, and to raise funds for their relief. Subscriptions amounting to £300, including £25 from the Archbishop of Dublin, were handed in at the meeting.

APRIL 26.—At the annual meeting of the Catholic Truth Society of England in the Cathedral Hall, Westminster, the Archbishop of Westminster took occasion to announce the decision of the Bishops of England regarding the Education Bill now before Parliament. The Bishops, he said, had weighed the matter calmly and dirpassionately, anxious only to safeguard the sacred interests committed to their care, and they had come to an unanimous and unhesitating conclusion. Simultaneously, but quite independently, the Catholic Education Council had considered the whole question, and they too had arrived at a unanimous conclusion, in harmony in all points with the conclusion arrived at by the Bishops. (See Record of Documents).

MAY.

MAY 1.—The Right Rev. Monsignor Provost Johnson, recently appointed Bishop-Auxiliary of Westminster, with the title of Bishop of Arindela, was consecrated to-day in the Westminster Cathedral by the Archbishop of Westminster. Born in London in 1832, Mgr. Johnson was ordained priest in 1857, and took the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1859. In November, 1865, Cardinal Manning appointed him Assistant Secretary, and at the beginning of 1867 he became his principal Diocesan Secretary, having the happiness of living with the Cardinal for twenty-five years, until his Eminence's death in 1892. He was continued in the office of Diocesan Secretary by Cardinal Vaughan, who, moreover, in 1893, obtained for him from Pope Leo XIII the dignity of domestic prelate of his Holiness. The present Archbishop, on his translation to the See of Westminster, retained him as diocesan secretary; in October, 1903, after twenty-five years membership of the Chapter of Westminster, his Grace obtained his promotion by the Pope to the Provostship of the Chapter; and in 1904 he appointed him one of his Vicars-General.

May 1.—The Standing Committee of the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland, held a meeting to-day, and issued an important statement in which they say that if the Ministry persist with the Education Bill, there is nothing for it but resistance to the utmost limit of constitutional action. They say, "We shall rally to our own in the fight for what is dearest to them and to us. Our representatives in Parliament will not fall short of what their countrymen in Ireland as well as in England expect of them." (See Record of Documents).

MAY 2.—The Irish Party, at a meeting held to-day, unanimously decided to vote against the second reading of the English Education Bill.

MAY 3.—In delivering judgment in the Chancery Division in a case where money was left "for Roman Catholic purposes" by the late Mr. John Glen, of Coleraine, the Master of the Rolls said no doubt "Roman Catholic purposes" did include some purposes connected intimately with the Roman Catholic religion, and were consequently charitable within the statute, but counsel for the defendants cited several instances of purposes which, though within the denomination of Roman Catholic purposes, yet were hardly objects of charity. In Belfast there was a Catholic organization having for its objects the protection of Catholic rights, and when a Bill was promoted in Parliament they opposed until a certain disposition of the wards of the city was made conceding the rights of Catholics upon the Municipal Council. This manifestly was a Catholic purpose, but not connected with the Catholic religion to such an extent as to make it purely charitable within the statute. Hence, the words "Roman Catholic purposes" being capable of two interpretations, the gift was void for uncertainty.

MAY 5.—Lord and Lady Aberdeen paid a visit to-day to St. Patrick's College, Maynooth. The fact was known to comparatively few until the issue of a "Court Circular" on Sunday night, which contained the following paragraph, among others:—"Their Excellencies the Lord Lieutenant and the Countess of Aberdeen, accompanied by the Hon. Nevil Gordon, the Hon. Muriel Herschell, and the Hon. Grace Ridley, and attended by Lord Herschell and Viscount Anson, A.D.C., visited Maynooth College on Saturday morning. Their Excellencies were received by the President and Vice-President of the College, the Lord Chancellor of Ireland. Lord Frederick Fitzgerald, and others. Subsequently their Excellencies were entertained at luncheon, and afterwards visited the College buildings.

MAY 10.—The Most Rev. Edward Magennis, Bishop of Kilmore, died to-day at his residence, Cullies House, Cavan. The deceased prelate was born at Kill, Co. Cavan, in 1846. After a brilliant course in Maynooth College he was ordained in 1870. In the year 1888 he was appointed Bishop in succession to the late Most Rev. Dr. Finnegan. Dr. Magennis was an eloquent preacher and an able administrator. The diocese of Kilmore contains many marks of his labours in the cause of education and religion. He disliked publicity in any form, and loved to work unostentatiously for faith and fatherland.

MAY 19.—To-day the funeral obsequies of the late Most Rev. Dr. Magennis were held in the Cathedral. His Eminence Cardinal Logue presided at the ceremonies. The Bishops of Clogher, Derry, Raphoe, Ardagh, Dromore, Meath, and Down and Connor assisted. There was a vast gathering of the clergy and laity from all parts of the diocese. Business was completely suspended in the town, which presented many signs of sorrow and mourning for the departed prelate. After Solemn Office and Requiem High Mass the coffin was carried on the shoulders of the people to a grave close beside the Cathedral, in which he himself had expressed a desire that he should be buried.

At a meeting of the Parish Priests of the Diocese held after the funeral of the late Bishop, the Very Rev. Patrick Finnegan, P.P., V.F., Templeport, Bawnboy, was elected Vicar Capitular.

MAY 19.—To-day the Right Rev. Monsignor Gaughran, P.P., V.G., Kells, received from Rome the brief of his appointment as Bishop of Meath. Dr. Gaughran was born in the parish of Johnstown over sixty years ago. After making his preliminary studies in the Diocesan Seminary, Navan, he entered Maynooth College, where he was ordained in 1868. Since his ordination he has ministered in many parishes. In 1878 he was appointed Secretary to the late Most Rev. Dr. Nulty, and shortly after Administrator of the parish of Mullingar. He succeeded the late Very Rev. Dr. Nicolls in the pastorship of Kells over twenty years ago. In 1895 he was created Domestic Prelate to the Pope. At the meeting of the Parish Priests of the diocese of Meath, held in Navan in January, his name was placed first on the list of those submitted to the Holy See as worthy to be appointed Bishop of the vacant diocese.

MAY 24.—The Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe, who was to have opened the Gaelic League Feis to-day, but was prevented from doing so by having to attend the funeral of the late Archdeacon Malone, Kilrush, wrote to the Hon. Secretary, Rev. B. O'Donovan, expressing his regret as being unable to attend, and stating that he had set his heart on being present, in order to identify himself with the committee in their work. "There is," wrote his Lordship, "abundant evidence of the elevating, wholesome, and stimulating influence gatherings like yours have upon our people. The people, rich and poor, of all classes, love them for the revival of the ancient customs, pastimes, and art of our country. It is a case of 'the child that was dead and has come to life again.'"

JUNE.

JUNE 1.—A Royal Commission has been appointed to inquire into and report upon the place which Trinity College and the University of Dublin now hold as organs of higher education in Ireland, and the steps proper to be taken to increase their usefulness to the country. The Commission is composed of the following members:—

The Right Hon. Sir Edward Fry, late Lord Justice of Appeal (Chairman); the Right Hon. Christopher Palles, Chief Baron of the Exchequer, Ireland; Sir T. Raleigh, Fellow of All Souls'. Oxford; Sir A. W. Rucker, Principal of the University of London; H. Jackson, D.L., Regius Professor of Greek in the University of Edinburgh; Messrs. Douglas Hyde, LL.D., Trinity College; D. J. Coffey, Professor of Physiology in the Catholic University School of Medicine; and S. B. Kelleher, Fellow of Trinity College, Dublin.

JUNE 2.—The death of Mr. Michael Davitt has caused general grief throughout the country. After his death, which took place in a private hospital on May 31, the remains were conveyed to the Church of the Carmelite Fathers, Clarendon Street, where they were visited by thousands. In accordance with his wish, he was buried in Straide, Co. Mayo, the townland in which he first saw the light. He would have no public funeral, but it was impossible to repress the emotions of those who gathered in the streets and watched the mournful procession to the Broadstone en route to his last resting place.

Mr. Davitt's will, which has been published, is characteristic. In the course of it the following sentiments are expressed: "My diaries are not to be published as such, and in no instance without my wife's permission; but on no account must anything harsh or censorious written in said diaries by me about any person, dead or alive, who has ever worked for Ireland, be printed, published, or used so as to give pain to any friend or relative. To all my friends I leave kind thoughts; to all my enemies the fullest possible forgiveness; and to Ireland the undying prayer for the absolute freedom and independence which it was my life's ambition to try and obtain for her."

JUNE 5.—The Annual Meeting of the Father Mathew Union of Total Abstaining Priests was held at the Temperance Hall, Sligo, under the presidency of the Most Rev. Dr. Clancy, Bishop of Elphin, Papers were contributed by the Very Rev. Dr. Walter M'Donald, Maynooth; Dr. Cox. Dublin; the Very Rev. Father Paul, O.S.F.C. (Provincial), and other distinguished Temperance workers. The attendance was exceedingly large.

JUNE 5.—At the annual meeting of the Central Council of the Catholic Clerical School Managers' Association, held in Dub'in, the following among many other important resolutions was unanimously adopted:—

"That we have followed with very great interest and pleasure the action and speeches of Mr. J. Redmond and the Irish Parliamentary Party, and Catholic members of Parliament for Irish constituencies on the English Education Question. We rejoice to see them proving so sound and determined on it, and we trust their efforts will result in protecting the Catholic youth of England from losing their Catholic schools and from being deprived of Catholic teachers. We feel that the speeches of the members of Parliament we refer to furnish the Catholic managers and people of Ireland with satisfactory assurances that such guarantees for Catholic education as exist in the present system of primary education in Ireland will have staunch upholders should an attack, in any future attempt at legislation, be made upon them. That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Mr. J. Redmond, as the leader of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and to each of the other members of Parliament to whom it applies, i.e., all Irish Nationalist members of Parliament."

The Right Rev. Mgr. Keller presided at the meeting, which was representative of the entire country.

JUNE 16.—A meeting of the Parish Priests of the diocese of Kilmore was held to-day in Cavan to select three clergymen, one of whom may be appointed by the Holy See to succeed the late Most Rev. Dr. Magennis. His Eminence Cardinal Logue presided. The result of the voting was as follows:—Rev. Patrick Finnegan, P.P., V.F., Templeport, Bawnboy, Dignissimus, nineteen votes; Rev. Patrick O'Connell, P.P., V.G., Dignior, twelve votes; Rev. P. Fitzsimons, Dignus, two votes.

JUNE 21.—The annual meeting of the Maynooth Union was held to-day at Maynooth College. Cardinal Logue, who presided at the general meeting, referred in his opening remarks to the education battle in England. All the signs of the times, he said, went to indicate that they probably had a stormy and difficult future before them. There was one thing they could calculate on without hesitation, and that was that they had at their back a people true as steel. His Eminence then told of a visit he recently paid to the shrine of St. Columbanus at Bobbio, and appealed to the priests of the Union to assist the Bishop of Bobbio in the work he had undertaken of putting the ancient shrine of St. Columbanus in proper condition.

The Right Rev. Monsignor Molloy, D.D., was elected President of the Union.

The Secretary's report which was read by the Rev. Dr. Harty showed an increase of membership. It contained the following passage: "The Irish Historical Publication Committee," which was formed last summer, has allotted, under certain conditions, a sum of £39 5s. towards the publication of the fine volume of Irish sermons which has appeared under the auspices of the Columban League; and also a sum of £40 towards the publication of the Black Book of Limerick, in which Father McCaffrey is at present engaged. It is the intention of the Committee to publish as soon as possible a descriptive catalogue of the O'Curry MSS. now in possession of the College. The work of sorting the MSS. has been placed in the capable hands of Dr. O'Hickey.

The treasurer (Rev. Fr. Morrisroe) reported that there was a surplus fund of about £100, and, on the motion of Mgr. Murphy, it was decided that it should go to the funds of the Historical Publication Committee.

Very able papers were read on "Co-ordination in Education," by Very Rev. A. Murphy, Limerick; "The Church and Education," by Very Rev. Innocent Ryan, Vice-President of the College, Thurles, who referred to Mr. Birrell's Bill as "rank injustice to Catholics"; "Our Irish Homes," by Rev. T. Barrett, O.P.; and "The Mediæval Guild," by Rev. P. J. Dowling, C.M.

The Rev. Dr. Henebry, Waterford, read an Irish paper on "The Teaching of all Knowledge through the medium of Irish," In the discussion which followed, the Irish language was exclusively used.

JUNE 22.—The annual meeting of the Catholic Truth Society of Ireland was held in Dublin. The Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Archbishop of Tuam, presided. A favourable report of the working of the Society during the year was presented, and the meeting was addressed by the Archbishop, the Hon. Judge Carton, Mr. Charles Dawson, Rev. Dr. Langan, Very Rev. Canon M'Geeny, Very Rev. Canon Burke, and others.

JUNE 22.—In the Court of Appeal the Lord Chancellor delivered judgment in the case of Cussen v. Hynes, in which the validity of two legacies, one to the Superior of Rochestown Convent, Co. Cork, and the other to the Superior of Holy Trinity Church, Cork, was called in question. Mr. Justice Barton, on the 10th May, declared the bequests to be valid. In delivering judgment, the Lord Chancellor said that the contentions put forward by both legatees, namely, that the legacies did not come within the penal clauses of the Catholic Emancipation Act, had failed. They were bound to administer these penal clauses as long as they were on the Statute Book. There was no doubt that the gift to the Superior of Rochestown Convent for the education of members of the community, was an illegal gift within the meaning of the Act. As to the legacy of £100 to the Superior of the Holy Trinity Church for that community, they could not yield to the contention that it was a gift to the individual members of the community at the date of the deceased's death. Consequently they were bound to hold that this legacy was also invalid, and they allowed the appeal.

JUNE 23.—At the distribution of prizes in Laurel Hill Convent Linerick, Most Rev. Dr. O'Dwyer, Bishop of Limerick, said he had grave doubts as to the English Education Bill being amended in the Catholic interests. His opinion was that the Catholic schools would emerge if the Bill passed, in a ruinous condition. The present was a time to speak out plainly, for there was a solemn crisis for their religion. His fear was that there Bight be an anxiety to come to an arrangement with the Liberal Government on the Bill, and he was astonished to read the statement of one of the leading members of the Irish party that he hoped it might be possible for him and his followers to support the Bill.

June 24.—In the Cathedral, Mullingar, on Sunday, Dr. Gaughran, for over twenty years pastor of Kells, was consecrated Bishop of the diocese of Meath. The ceremony was carried out with great religious splendour. His Eminence Cardinal Logue was the Consecrating Prelate, and the Assistant Prelates were the most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe, and Most Rev. Dr. O'Doherty, Bishop of Derry. The other members of the Hierarchy present included the Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Archbishop of Tuam; Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Cloyne; Most Rev. Dr. Owens, Bishop of Clogher; Most Rev. Dr. Henry, Bishop of Down and Connor; Most Rev. Dr. Clancy, Bishop of Elphin; Most Rev. Dr. Foley, Bishop of Kildare; Most Rev. Dr. O'Neill, Bishop of Dromore; Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe; Most Rev. Dr. Lacy, Bishop of Middlesbrough; Very Rev. P. Finegan, Vicar Capitular, Kilmore. Rev. Bernard Brady, P.P., Dunboyne, preached the consecration sermon.

JUNE 29.—The celebration of the Golden Jubilee of the Catholic University School of Medicine began to-day with a solemn religious function. Solemn High Mass was celebrated in University Church, St. Stephen's Green, in the presence of the professorial staff, past and present students, and a very large congregation, every member of which felt proud of the grand record of the School. His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin presided The Right Rev. Monsignor Fitzpatrick was celebrant. Very Rev. Dr. Cronin, Clonliffe College, preached the sermon. He took for his text the words: "This is the victory that overcometh the world—our faith," from St. John i, 4. In the course of a very eloquent and erudite address he said no system of education was lawful for them which guaranteed to their faith no consideration and no protection, which recognized in it no rights, which hindered its due development or impaired or imperilled it in any way. The ceremonies concluded with the Te Deum and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

JUNE 30.—In the Dolphin Hotel, ou Saturday night, the Golden Jubilee celebration concluded with a banquet, the attendance at which was so large that two spacious rooms were occupied. Sir Christopher Nixon presided in one and Surgeon McArdle in the other. "The School," which was the only toast given, was proposed by Monsignor Mannix, President of Maynooth College, who said it was founded to vindicate a great principle and to fight for a great cause. The principle had not yet triumphed and the cause had not yet been quite won, but both would yet triumph completely. Monsignor Molloy in responding said there was nothing more pathetic in the melancholy history of education in Ireland than the career of the school. What they wanted was fair play. They wanted a school which had achieved such success to be treated by the State according to its merits, and placed on a level with other medical schools doing the same class of work. They wanted larger buildings and more spacious halls for the purpose, not only of teaching, but still more of research. Judge Brereton Barry and Dr. Laffan also responded. Surgeon McArdle said whether they were fortunate enough to obtain long-delayed justice, or whether they were still to struggle along unaided and unendowed, he saw before him the material which would hold the School in the proud position which it occupied.

JUNE 30.—The O'Connor Don died to-day at Clonalis, Co. Roscommon. Born in 1838, he entered Parliament in 1860, and took a prominent part in the framing of such Irish measures as the Industrial Schools Act, 1868, the Irish Church Act, 1869, and the Land Act of 1870. He voted with the other Irish Catholic members against Gladstone's Irish University Bill of 1873. He assisted in securing the passage of the Irish Sunday Closing Act and Royal University Act in 1879. At the General Election of 1880 he was defeated in Roscommon, and did not afterwards sit in Parliament, but continued to take an active interest in public affairs. He was a member of the famous Bessborough Commission in 1880, which preceded the passing of the Land Act in 1881. In 1896 he succeeded Mr. Childers as chairman of the Irish Financial Relations Commission, which found that Ireland was only liable to one-twentieth of English taxation while she was actually taxed to the amount of rather more than one-twelfth -in other words, that she was paying two millions a year more than her share to the Imperial revenue. His publications included a History of the O'Connors of Connaught, essays on Freedom of Education, Irish Land Tenure, and Taxation of Ireland. took a warm interest in the movement for the revival of the Irish language.

JULY.

JULY 7.—The Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe, opened the Clare Feis in Ennis. The attendance was extremely large and included many priests, some of whom came from distant parts of the diocese. His Lordship, after giving reasons why Clare should be in the forefront of the Gaelic movement, said he had many opportunities of observing the powerful influence for good which it was exercising over the people. It had broken the backbone of their great domestic enemy—intemperance. It had put a new spirit into the young men and women, making them self-reliant, self-respecting, and sober. It had taught them where to look for their happiness and showed them how to find it in their own land. It was gradually laying the foundations of a prosperous, happy, and united Irish Ireland.

JULY 10.—Very Rev. Dr. Delany has sent a letter to the press in which he announces that, for the purpose of providing University Scholarships in Ireland for the sons of civil servants, a retired official, in remembrance of a life-long connection with the service, has most generously placed £5,000 in the hands of three trustees—Messrs. J. C. Alcorn, B.L., Charitable Bequests Office; J. O'Donnell, Church Property Department, Land Commission; and L. A. Teeling, B.L., Accountant-General, Four Courts. Subscriptions to augment the fund are invited from civil servants In the awarding of scholarships the sons of subscribers will get a preference.

JULY 20.—The Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe, hae held a ten days' Gaelic Festival, which he named Aonach an Duin, in Letterkenny, with the object of raising funds to clear off the debt on St. Eunan's College, which is now almost com-The proceedings, which opened on July 10th, were attended by people from various parts of the country and even from Great Britain, all anxious to assist his Lordship in the great undertaking. The exhibits consisted entirely of local industries. Irish games, music and amusements of various kinds enlivened the proceedings. Various congresses were held in connection with the Aonach, at which papers were read and discussed. Among the subjects dealt with were "Irish in the Church, the School, and the Home," by Rev. Dr. MacGinley, Maynooth College (who spoke in Irish); "The Dietary of the Poeple," by Dr. Warnock; "Some Practical Aspects of Primary Education in Donegal," by the Rev. Joseph Boyle, Diocesan Inspector; "House and Farm Improvements," by Mr. Fallon, C.D.B.; and "The Amusements of the People," by the Rev. Dr. Maguire. The discussion on the first paper was entirely, and on the other papers partly, conducted in Irish.

JULY 25.—The Royal Commission appointed to inquire into the problem of the Congested Districts of Ireland held its first meeting to-day in London. Lord Dudley, formerly Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, is Chairman of this Commission, and among the members are the Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe, and Sir Anthony MacDonnell, Under Secretary for Ireland.

JULY 31.—The Archbishop of Dublin, in an interview with a representative of the Freeman's Journal, left no doubt as to the view he takes of a statement which is being circulated in Dublin and the neighbourhood for signature by Catholic laymen. statement sets forth as a basis for dealing with the Irish University question a plan for the introduction of certain changes in Trinity College. A "substantial representation" of Catholics upon the governing body, with the power of expansion proportionate to the number of Catholic students and their academic distinctions, the establishment of dual professorships in at least mental and moral science and in history, the religious instruction of Catholic students by Catholic clergymen, the establishment of a faculty of Catholic theology, the provision of a chapel for the Catholic students and the erection of a Council or other body to secure the practical efficiency of the safeguards for Catholic students in faith and dogma would, it is suggested, afford a solution to this question satisfactory to Catholics. Such a solution could not be sanctioned by the bishops. The Archbishop condemned the "statement" as "a chimerical production, embodying a senseless project." His Grace said that the Bishops were willing to accept a new college as Catholic as Trinity College is Protestant in a reconstructed Royal University, as recommended by the late Royal Commission, or a similar college in the University of Dublin, as proposed by Mr. Wyndham and Lord Dunraven. They would co-operate in every way in their power to make either a success.

AUGUST.

August 4.-During the past week the papers have devoted much space to the University Question, and the plans suggested for its solution in view of the coming inquiry by the Trinity College Commission. Certain Fellows and Professors of Trinity College have drawn up a scheme providing for certain changes in the constitution of the governing body, and for the establishing of duplicate chairs in some subjects, so as to induce Catholic students to enter the College. This scheme is to be submitted to the consideration of the Royal Commission. Its premature publication in the press has given rise to much discussion. After the publication of this scheme, the Archbishop of Dublin deemed it his duty to publish immediately the statement drawn up by the Standing Committee of the Irish Hierarchy, in which their Lordships state fully, for the information of the Trinity College Commission, the reasons why the Catholics of Ireland cannot accept any scheme of mixed education in Trinity College, but declare their willingness to accept any of the following solutions: (1) a University for Catholics; (2) a new College in the University of Dublin; (3) a new College in the Royal University.*

Letters on the question are also published from the Archbishop of Tuam, from Very Rev. Dr. Delaney, S.J., and several prominent Catholic laymen.

August 4.—To-day a party of pilgrims from Bradford, numbering nearly one hundred, arrived in Armagh. They were met by his Eminence Cardinal Logue's representative, Very Rev. Michael Quinn, Adm. The Armagh Foresters' brass band was present and played them to the Cathedral. In the procession a beautiful banner of St. Patrick was borne by the pilgrims. It was subsequently presented to Cardinal Logue.

In the evening the pilgrims assembled in the Synod Hall and presented his Eminence with an address, which was read by Father Earnshaw. His Eminence, in replying, referred to the assistance which the Irish Parliamentary Party had rendered English Catholics while the Education Bill was being discussed in Parliament, and said that whatever legislation might be passed, the Nonconformists would never get possession of the Catholic schools of England.

August 5.—Yesterday the Most Rev. Dr. O'Neill, Bishop of Dromore, solemnly consecrated the beautiful Dominican Church of St. Catherine, Newry, and to-day the closing ceremonies in connection with the event were carried out in the presence of a vast congregation. At twelve o'clock High Mass was celebrated by the Most Rev. Dr. O'Callaghan, Bishop of Cork. The Most Rev. Dr. Mangan, Bishop of Kerry, assisted at the function, at which the Bishop of the diocese presided. At the evening devotions Very Rev. J. C. Lyons, Provincial of the Dominicans, preached an impressive sermon.

^{*} See this Statement in full in Appendix to First Report of Royal Commission on Trinity College.

August 10.—This year the festival known as the Oireachtas is acknowledged on all sides to have been more successful than any of its predecessors. The various sections devoted to language, literature, history, music, etc., were attended by enthusiastic Irish Irelanders. The industrial section too was not forgotten, and the sale of Irish manufactured goods is certain to receive an impetus in consequence. The closing scene on Saturday night was most encouraging. Dr. Douglas Hyde came on to the stage and the whole audience rose and cheered for several minutes. He came forward, he said, to thank the people for their attendance at the Oireachtas during the week. He was delighted that they had such a successful Oireachtas on the occasion of their tenth festival. This Oireachtas was the most successful that they had yet held. The audience gave three united cheers, and the proceedings closed amidst a scene of the greatest enthusiasm.

August 14.—An important Encyclical (Gravissimo Officii) addressed by the Pope to the French Bishops, forbidding the formation of the Associations Cultuelles contemplated by the Separation Law, is published to-day.

August 15.—Replying to addresses presented to him from various elected bodies at Monaghan, the Most Rev. Dr. Farley, Archbishop of New York, who is visiting his native land, said it was the aspiration of every good Irishman to see the country of his birth governing itself. A transformation was certainly coming over Ireland. That day everyone felt that Home Rule—Ireland for Irishmen—was an assured certainty.

August 24.—At a meeting of the Cork Corporation the recent report of Dr. Windle on the failure of the local Queen's College was considered. On the motion of Councillor Horgan, it was unanimously resolved that the declaration of one so competent to form a clear and independent judgment on the question, casts upon the Government the duty of grappling promptly and effectively with the causes of failure which Dr. Windle has indicated, and of taking advantage of his spectal knowledge and capacity to bring about in the case of the Cork College a change as salutary as that which, mainly at his instigation, resulted in the establishment of Birmingham's prosperous University. "We are convinced," the resolution added, "that the conversion of the Queen's College into a properly constituted and equipped University centre would tend to elevate the whole standard of education, develop the intellectual life, and promote the general prosperity of Munster."

August 26.—To-day the new and beautiful church which has been erected at Ballymahon, Co. Longford, was dedicated to divine worship. Cardinal Logue presided at the ceremony which was attended by Most Rev. Dr. Hoare, Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Most Rev. Dr. Henry, Most Rev. Dr. Gaughran, many priests, and a vast gathering of the laity. After the first Gospel of the High Mass, which was celebrated by the Most Rev. Dr. Hoare, Bishop of Ardagh and Clonmacnoise, a sermon was preached by the Bishop of Killaloe.

Replying to an address presented to him after Mass on behalf of the priests and people of Ballymahon, his Eminence said, whatever their critics might say, however they might blame them for raising these glorious edifices, they were showing themselves more really Christian than the economists who gave themselves to the material things of the world, and seemed to forget that there was anything real in the world to come. He believed that the material interests of their people would not suffer by piety. He hoped that the spirit of charity which led to the erection of that temple would never die in Ireland.

SEPTEMBER.

SEPTEMBER 2.—On Sunday some one hundred and fifty members of the Institute of Journalists, the annual meeting of which took place in Dublin this week, attended High Mass in the Pro-Cathedral. The congregation, which was an unusually large one, included many leading citizens of the metropolis. The visitors, who were accommodated with seats near the altar-rails, followed the devotions attentively. Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, Bishop of Canea, presided. After the first Gospel, a sermon was preached by Rev. P. A. Beecher, M.A., D.D., Maynooth College, who took for his text the words, "What is truth," addressed to Our Blessed Lord by Pilate. There were, he said, two great means of propagating truth—the pulpit and the press. For the pulpit was reserved the supernatural side, and for the press, which was the greatest power of the day, was reserved the natural side. He exhorted them to impart sound ethical ideas, and to combat the attacks upon Christianity which were a characteristic of the present day.

SEPTEMBER 6.—Among the resolutions passed at the meeting of the National Directory of the United Irish League, held in Dublin, to-day, was one which says: "That after the deprivation of liberty, no greater disability can be inflicted on a people than a thoroughly bad system of education; that Ireland has suffered under this disability for more than a century through no fault of her own; that, at the present moment, opportunity of higher University Education is denied to the great majority of the people; that the Intermediate system is bad in principle, and is carried on under the control of an irresponsible board which pays no regard to public opinion, and is not representative of the national feeling or the educational ideals of the people; that the teachers of tho primary schools are harassed by oppressive regulations, by acknowledged grievances unredressed, and by constant changes of programme, while the school-houses are left in a deplorable condition owing to a dispute between the National Board and the Treasury, which has now lasted for six years; that there is no system of co-ordination, nor any body whose business it would be to devise and carry into effect such a system; and that all the bodies controlling Irish education are permeated with an anti-National spirit that, while the Irish people are denied all control over the educational system of their own country, their want of education is made the excuse for importing Scotchmen and Englishmen to do the work which should be done by Irishmen; and that we see little hope of an effective remedy being applied to this chaotic and scandalous state of affairs until Irish education is handed over to the control of the Irish nation." There were sixty-three members of the Directory present at the meeting, over which Mr. John Redmond, M.P., presided.

SEPTEMBER 19.—At a meeting of the Limerick Board of Guardians it was announced that Most Rev. Dr. O'Dwyer had promised £2,500 towards the erection of a sanatorium for consumptives, and that Mr. O'Brien, of Southill, Limerick, had promised £1,000.

SEPTEMBER 20.—The Right Rev. Monsignor Mannix, President of Maynooth College, has been appointed a Senator of the Royal University in the room of the late O'Conor Don.

SEPTEMBER 22. Speeches in support of the Irish National Teachers' claims for better treatment were delivered bythe Bishop of Achonry, Dr. Douglas Hyde, Mr. John Dillon, M.P., Very Rev. Canon O'Hara, and others at a large and representative meeting held in Ballaghadereen to-day. Dr. Lyster, who presided at the meeting, said it seemed to him that Mr. John Dillon struck the right nail on the head when he declared that he considered the teachers of Ireland as a body too lethargic, listless, and apathetic in their movement, and urged them to active and even aggressive efforts in their cause. Dr. Douglas Hyde, who spoke in Irish, said he did so because he wanted to bring the movement of the teachers into line with the great Irish Ireland movement, which was now pulsating throughout the land.

Mr. John Dillon, M.P., who was the principal speaker on the occasion, said that in his opinion the time had come for a vigorous movement against the control of Irish education by the National Board, and instead of all the Boards now engaged in the ruin of Irish education, the substitution of some genuinely popular authority directly responsible to the people of Ireland.

SEPTEMBER 30.—An important Pastoral on the Education question, addressed by the Bishops of England to their flocks was read to-day in all the Catholic churches of England. Their lordships condemn the Education Bill as it has passed the House of Commons, and order special prayers and devotions during the month of October to avert the disaster which is threatened to the Catholic Schools. (See Record of Documents.)

OCTOBER.

OCTOBER 5.—The painfully sudden death of Right Rev. Mgr. Molloy, Rector of the Catholic University, and Vice-Chancellor of the Royal University, was learned with universal regret. Mgr. Molloy, who was a delegate at the quatercentenary celebrations of Aberdeen University, was found dead in bed on Monday morning at the house of Mr. James Hutchinson Manager of the North of Scotland Bank, whose guest he was. A Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Cathedral, Aberdeen.

on Tuesday, by Bishop Chisholm, assisted by Mgr. Fraser and others, The remains were taken from the Cathedral on Wednesday morning and conveyed to Dublin for interment. The obsequies took place at the Cathedral, Marlborough Street. His Eminence Cardinal Logue presided at the ceremonies, which were attended by many members of the Hierarchy, a large number of priests, and an immense congregation of the laity. His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin, who was absent on the Continent, could not reach the city in time for the obsequies, and telegraphed his regret. When the sad functions concluded, the remains were conveyed to Glasnevin, where they were interred in the presence of a great gathering of representative citizens of all sections. Seldom has a death evoked such general regret in Dublin as that of Monsignor Molloy.

Monsignor Mollov was born at Mount Tallant House, near Dublin His early education was received in Castleknock College, whence he went to Maynooth College, where had a very distinguished career. At the age three he was appointed Professor of Theology in Maynooth College, a position which he filled until 1874, when he became Professor of Natural Philosophy in the Catholic University. In 1882 he succeeded the late Dean Neville of Cork as Rector of the institution. In the same year he was elected a Fellow of the Royal University of Ireland. He was a member of the Council of the Royal Dublin Society for many years, and he was one of the Society's most popular lecturers. He was learned in many sciences, and was an authority on applied electricity and the wireless telegraphy of Marconi. Monsignor Molloy wrote several books, chief among them being Geology and Revelation, published in 1870; Gleanings in Science, in 1888; A Treatise on the Correct Use of Shall and Will, in 1897. He was the author of numerous scientific addresses and literary eassays, and was a frequent contributor to the magazines

OCTOBER 7—At Tullamore (King's County), Murroe (Co. Limerick), and Suncroft (Co. Kildare), on Sunday, new churches were dedicated to divine worship, in the presence of large congregations. Most Rev. Dr. Gaughran, Bishop of Meath, performed the impressive ceremony at Tullamore, his Grace the Archbishop of Cashel at Murroe, and the Most Rev. Dr. Foley, Bishop of Kildare, at Suncroft. The Tullamore church, which is one of the finest ecclesiastical buildings in the country, cost £25,000. Most Rev. Dr. Hoare, Bishop of Ardagh, was Celebrant of High Mass on the occasion, and Very Rev. B. Brady, P.P., Dunboyne, preached the dedication sermon. At Murroe, Very Rev. Canon Ryan, P.P., Galbally, was Celebrant of High Mass, and Very Rev. Dr. Keane, O.P., was the preacher. The Bishop of Kerry and several priests some of whom came from distant places, were present. Very Rev. J. Cullen, P.P., Tinryland, was Celebrant of High Mass at Suncroft, and the Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe, preached the dedication sermon.

OCTOBER 10.—At a general meeting of the Bishops of Ireland, held to-day at Maynooth College, a declaration was ordered to be published warning Catholics against the mixed residential colleges established by the Department of Agriculture. Their Lordships also, while stating that they are prepared to support an agitation for the proper reform of the National Board, warn their priests and people against any movement which would seek to interfere with the authority of Catholic managers over their schools.

A letter of sympathy with the Episcopate of France was adopted and forwarded to Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, (See Record of Documents).

OCTOBER 11.—The fourth annual Conference of the Catholic Truth Society of Ireland opened under the presidency of his Eminence Cardinal Logue, in the Round Room, Rotunda, on yesterday. The inaugural address entitled "Secularism in Education," was read by the Most Rev. Dr. Clancy, Bishop of Elphin. Among the speakers on the occasion were Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Archbishop of Tuam, Mr. John Dillon, M.P., and Mr. P. J. O'Neill, Chairman of the Dublin County Council. To-day papers were read on "The Catholic Church and Socialism," by Rev. James M'Caffrey, S.T.L., Maynooth College; "The Want of a Catholic Book Review," by Mr. Francis Sweeney, B.A.; and "Lay Cooperation in the Work of the Society," by Mr. J. J. Horgan, Cork. On Thursday evening his Grace the Archbishop of Tuam held a reception in the Gresham Hotel.

The following message of sympathy with the Catholics of France was adopted by the Conference and telegraphed to Cardinal

Richard :-

"TO HIS EMINENCE CARDINAL RICHARD, PARIS,

"The Catholics of Ireland, bishops, clergy, and faithful, assembled at their National Conference of the Catholic Truth Society of Ireland, send to their French brethren the assurance of their unanimous and fraternal sympathy. The noble courage of French Catholics and their fidelity to the Sovereign Pontiff fill us with satisfaction and joy.

" MICHAEL, CARDINAL LOGUE,

President of the Conference.

" 🛂 JOHN, Archbishop of Tuam,

"President of the Catholic Truth Society of Ireland."

The following reply was received:-

" To CARDINAL LOGUE.

"Deeply grateful for the sympathy of the bishops, clergy, and faithful of Ireland. We are desirous of imitating their courage and their fidelity to the Holy See.

"CARDINAL RICHARD."

OCTOBER 13.—A largely-attended public meeting, presided over by Most Rev. Dr. Hoare, Bishop of Ardagh and Clonmacnoise, was held in the Town Hall, Longford, for the purpose of calling attention to the present state of primary education in Ireland, and demanding better treatment for the teachers.

OCTOBER 14.—The Most Rev. Dr. O'Callaghan, Bishop of Cork, consecrated the church of the Vincentian Fathers. Sunday's Well, after which his Lordship celebrated Pontifical High Mass. Most Rev. Dr. Sheehan, Bishop of Waterford; the Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Cloyne; the Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, Bishop of Ross, and a large number of priests attended. The Bishop of Ross preached the sermon. The beautiful new church of Our Lady of the Rosary, Nenagh, erected by the Very Rev. Dean White, was also solemnly consecrated by the Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe, who afterwards celebrated High Mass, at which his Grace the Archbishop of Cashel presided, and the Most Rev. Dr. O'Dwyer, Bishop of Limerick, preached the sermon. The Right Rev. Dr. Beardwood, Lord Abbot, Mount St. Joseph, Roscrea, was present in the sanctuary during the sacred ceremonies. The Convent and Schools of Bessbrook were dedicated by his Eminence Cardinal Logue. They were built at a cost of 18,600. of which £2,345 was subscribed by a teacher in the parish. Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe, preached the sermon on the occasion.

OCTOBER 14.—To-day's demonstration in honour of the Father Mathew anniversary was one of the most imposing seen in Dublin for a long time. The procession, which assembled in Church Street, and wended its way through the principal thoroughfares of the city, was of immense length, while the meeting in which it culminated assumed enormous proportions. Every class in the community was represented, but the working men of Dublin occupied the leading place in the grand gathering.

Around the statue erected to the great apostle of temperance in O'Connell Street the procession formed up. From a large brake speeches were delivered by gentlemen prominent in the temperance movement, including the Very Rev. Father Aloysius. Mr. P. J. O'Neill. Chairman of the Dublin County Council; Very Rev. Father Paul, Mr. John Farren, President of the Dublin Trades Council, who said he represented 17,000 workingmen; Mr. T. P. Daly, T.C.; Very Rev. Canon Casey, who took the pledge from Father Mathew; Mr. J. J. Kelly, T.C., and Mr. Gore, solicitor. In response to a call from the gathering Father Aloysius gave the pledge. Thousands uncovered their heads and solemnly repeated the reverend gentleman's words.

OCTOBER 15.—The Archbishop of Westminster presided over a large gathering of clergy and laity at the Cathedral Hall, Westminster, when the Bishop of Arindela (Right Rev. W. A. Johnson). Vicar-General of the diocese, was presented with an illuminated address and a purse containing £653 in recognition of his elevation to the episcopacy. Bishop Johnson has in addition received a gold cross and chain from Lord and Lady Brampton, while the Duke of Norfolk and five other friends have presented him with a silver crozier.

His Grace Archbishop Bourne, in the course of his remarks said they owed Bishop Johnson a debt of gratitude for work faithfully accomplished, work of an arduous and ungrateful kind. for they all knew how difficult it was for any priest to devote all his time and attention to the task of keeping ledgers. Yet that the Bishop had done for many years, and no one could tell what the diocese owed to him in that respect.

OCTOBER 21.—The Jubilee of the foundation of St. John's Cathedral, Limerick, was celebrated with special ceremonial in presence of a very large congregation. The Mayor and members of the Corporation attended, accompanied by the Sergeant-at-Arms, the Civic officials, and the Fire Brigade, and were accommodated in specially reserved seats. High Mass commenced at twelve o'clock, at which the Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. O'Dwyer, presided. A large number of clergy was also present. The sermon was preached by Very Rev. Canon Murphy, D.D., Macroom. After the ceremonies presentations were made to the Bishop. The Cathedral was made gay outside with bunting, and when night set in the spire was illuminated.

OCTOBER 22.—Cardinal Logue has received from the Cardinal Archbishop of Paris a touching reply to the letter sent him on behalf of the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland. It recalls, his Eminence says, the warm friendship that has always bound the Catholics of Ireland to their brethren of France. He adds: "Amongst all the children of the Church the Irish have given the most striking proofs of inviolable constancy."

OCTOBER 22.—Attention was called by Sir Thomas Esmonde, M.P., at the Irish County Councils' General Council meeting to the action of the Irish Department in relation to the scheme for establishing University County Scholarships adopted by the Wexford County Council. In this connection Sir Thomas moved the following on behalf of the Wexford County Council:—

"That as perfect equality with regard to facilities for Higher Education is the inherent right of every tax-paying citizen, we call upon the Government to take such steps as may be necessary to confer on all Irishmen, irrespective of religious denomination, equal facilities in the matter of University Education"

The resolution was adopted with the following addition, suggested by Mr Field:—

"That meanwhile we call on the Government to reform the present system and abolish the so-called National Board of Education"

OCTOBER 23.—An enthusiastic public meeting was held in the Round Room, Mansion House, under the auspices of the Gaelic League, for the purpose of protesting against the grievances connected with the system of primary education in Ireland, including the policy of the National Board of Education towards the teaching of Irish, and of urging the reform of that Board. The Lord Mayor presided, and the meeting was addressed by the Lord Mayor, Dr. Douglas Hyde, Mr. John MacNeill, Mr. Stephen Gwynn, Mr

Hugh Law, M.P., and other speakers. Dr. Douglas Hyde said the National Board had been tried and found wanting, and they demanded popular control of their national educational centre.

OCTOBER 25.—The Senate of the Royal University of Ireland unanimously elected Sir Christopher Nixon, M.D., to be Vice-Chancellor of the University, in room of the late Right Rev. Monsignor Molloy. He was proposed by the Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Archbishop of Tuam, and seconded by the Very Rev. Dr. Hamilton, a Presbyterian divine, President of the Queen's College, Belfast.

On the motion of Rev. Dr Delany, seconded by the Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Archbishop of Tuam, the Senate unanimously resolved: "That in the judgment of the Senate of the Royal University, it would be disastrous to the interests of education in Ireland, and gravely injurious to the welfare of the country, to concentrate the control of higher education in one University."

OCTOBER 27—Meetings were held at Tipperary, Kilkenny, Kildare, and other centres during the past week with the object of directing public attention to the grievances under which the teachers of National schools suffer.

OCTOBER 27.—Speaking at a meeting held in Sligo Town Hall on Saturday, the Most Rev. Dr. Clancy said he had made a study of the Irish Education Question, and had convinced himself that the chief defects in it were traceable to the financial difficulty. Perhaps the most flagrant violation of justice that was ever perpetrated was to be found in the malversation of funds that essentially belonged to the department of Irish Primary Education. If the rate introduced by Mr Goschen in 1892 had been adhered to Ireland would now be entitled to £460,000, which was being systematically withheld from her

OCTOBER 28.—In Carlow Cathedral to-day, the Most Rev. Dr. Foley delivered an address on the grievances connected with primary education. He said the agitation which had been carried on for the past few months in order to secure something like justice for primary education at the hands of the Imperial Treasury had his heartiest support, and he hoped that every public board in the country would demand that justice be done to the Irish child. He could not well conceive anything more discreditable to the Lords of His Majesty's Imperial Treasury than the shocking condition in which they had forced managers and Commissioners to leave the schools during the past year and a half.

OCTOBER 28.—At Waterford, the annual Conference of the Catholic Young Men's Societies of Ireland was held. Previous to assembling for the work of the day, the delegates were entertained to lunch, at which the health of "Our Holy Father the Pope" was enthusiastically honoured. The inaugural address was delivered by the Most Rev. Dr. Sheehan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, after which papers were read on "The Catholic Young Man of To-day," by Mr. Eugene Murphy, Cork; "Thoughts on Literary Criticism," by Professor Aherne, Waterford; "A Plea for Closer Union," by Mr. P. J. Daniel, Dublin; "Yesterday, To-day, To-morrow," by Mr. J. J. Scanlan, Cork; and "The Young Men's Societies as National Assets," by Mr. T. P. Shakespeare, Queenstown. Dr. Sheehan's address, which was enthusiastically applauded, dealt with the position which Catholic young men should occupy in the public life of the country.

OCTOBER 31.—The Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, Bishop of Ross, has been appointed a member of the Commission on Poor Laws, in succession to the late O'Conor Don.

NOVEMBER.

NOVEMBER I.—Five first class scholarships in Modern Literature offered by the Catholic Scholarships Committee have all been won this year by pupils of the Christian Brothers, as well as Mr. Sweetman's scholarship for excellence in Irish. Mr. Kelly's scholarship in Classics has been won by Clongowes, and in Mathematics by St. Colman's, Fermoy. Among girls' schools the first class scholarship in Modern Literature goes to Loreto College, St. Stephen's Green; three of the four second class scholarships to the Dominican Convent, Eccles Street; and the fourth to the Loreto Convent, Wexford.

NOVEMBER 4.—In St. Teresa's Church, Clarendon Street, Dublin a solemn Triduum in honour of sixteen Carmelite nuns who were guillotined in Paris during the Revolution was inaugurated. Pontifical High Mass began at twelve o'clock, his Grace the Archbishop of Dublin presiding. The Most Rev. Dr. O'Dea, Bishop of Clonfert, was celebrant. The preacher on the occasion was the Rev. Father Kane, S.I.

NOVEMBER 8.—In the Round Room, Rotunda, Dublin, the annual meeting of the Pioneer Total Abstinence Association was held. Right Rev. Monsignor Mannix, D.D., President of Maynooth College, presided. Father Cullen, S.J., who delivered the annual address, dwelt on the marvellous expansion of the Pioneer League, which he attributed firstly to the blessing of the Sacred Heart; secondly to the blessing of our Holy Father; thirdly to the heroism involved by those engaged in the movement, and to the wearing of their badges openly, which acted as an incentive to others. He paid a tribute also to the Capuchin Fathers, the Anti-Treating League, and the Gaelic League. Father Finlay, S.J., said they had evidence of the progress of temperance in the decrease of whiskey money which a paternal Government had provided for educational purposes.

NOVEMBER 13.—The Archbishop of Dublin in an interview with a representative of the Freeman's Journal took occasion to deny a rumour that he had changed his views regarding the proper solution of the Irish University question. He still believed that a good line of settlement of the question would be through the establishment of a second college in the University of Dublin. The Episcopal Standing Committee of which he was a member, had recently renewed their declaration that they were prepared to accept any one of three solutions: a new University for Catholics; a new College in the Dublin University; a new College in the Royal University. Some of the bishops might prefer one of these solutions, some of them another, but all were willing to accept any one of these three lines of settlement. The only one of the three solutions that the present Royal Commission was competent to deal with, in accordance with their terms of reference, was that of the establishment of a new College in the University of Dublin.

NOVEMBER 17.—Mr. William O'Brien, M.P., announced at a meeting held in Cork on Saturday that his wife and himself had made up their minds to bequeath on their demise practically all they had in the world as a subscription towards the endowment of a Cork University. If the Borough and County Councils of the Province of Munster would undertake a very temporary and slight burden it would be possible to provide immediately, say, a sum of £50,000.

NOVEMBER 23.—In a letter to the Freeman's Journal the Bishop of Limerick deals with encroachments of the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction on the domain of Irish Education Boards, and protests against their endeavour to establish a secular primary school in Limerick.

NOVEMBER 24.—Large meetings were held to-day at Galway and Monaghan to demand the reform of the National Education Board, and to protest against the inadequate financial provision made for primary education in Ireland. Speaking at the former meeting the Bishop of Galway declared that the salaries paid to teachers were entirely too low for the work they had to do.

DECEMBER.

DECEMBER I.—The Bishop of Limerick, in the columns of the Freeman's Journal, expressed approval of the action taken by the Duke of Norfolk, and those who accompanied him on the deputation to Lord Lansdowne, with regard to the future of the Education Bill. His Lordship at the same time expresses the pain and regret with which he has read the letters of the Freeman's London correspondent, condemning the action of the deputation and asserting that the Irish Party also condemned it. The action of the Irish members during the passing of the Bill through the House of Commons receives the highest praise from Dr. O'Dwyer. He declares that they put the case of the Catholic schools with unanswerable and unanswered cogency.

DECEMBER 14.—The Bishop of Limerick in a letter to the Freeman's Journal, expresses surprise at the action of the Irish members in supporting the Government's motion to reject en bloc the Lords' amendments to the Education Bill.

Mr. John Redmond, interviewed on the subject, said that his Lordship, when he wrote, was not acquainted wth the fact thas no negotiations had taken place between the Irish Party and the Government on the Bill, except after consultation with the English bishops, and that consultation had continued up to the present.

DECEMBER 18.—The Archbishop of Dublin, speaking at the opening of a new wing of the Maternity Hospital, Holles Street, gave some interesting statistics regarding the way in which Catholic hospitals are treated by the Government. In reviewing the history of public grants, his Grace said the starting point was that Parliament had voted the substantial sum of £15,850 of public money as a State subvention to a number of hospitals in the city. Every penny of that money went to ten or twelve hospitals that were under Protestant management—that was to say, the management was either exclusively or predominantly Protestant—so that the claims of their great hospitals such as the Mater, the Hospice for the Dying, and the Children's Hospital, Temple Street, were simply ignored. Referring to the Rotunda Hospital, his Grace said its management was in the hands of sixty gentlemen, practically all Protestants. The consequence was that the important position of Master, which might be the object of the ambition of any doctor, was a post to which no Catholic would have the slightest chance of being appointed, no more than he would be appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

DECEMBER 20.—The House of Lords having determined to insist on their amendments to the Education Bill, the Prime Minister announced to-day in the House of Commons that the Government would drop the Bill.

Mr. Redmond spoke in the debate, explaining the Catholic position with regard to the Bill, and making the important statement that the Irish Party in accepting the concessions offered by the Government acted not only in consultation with, but with the concurrence of the responsible heads of the Catholic Church in England.

DECEMBER 21.—Mr. John Redmond has received the following letter from the Archbishop of Westminster:—

"DEAR MR. REDMOND,

"Now that our long struggle for educational equality is momentarily at an end, it is due to you that I should again thank you for the efforts that you and your colleagues have made to rescue our Catholic schools in England and Wales from the jeopardy in which the proposals of the Government had placed them. Knowing as I do the negotiations which have taken place, I am satisfied that you have done your best to deal with a very delicate and critical situation.

"With every good wishes for Christmas and the coming year.

Believe me,

"Yours very sincerely,

★ FRANCIS,

"Archbishop of Westminster."

DECRETUM.

De Clerico loco Subdiaconi vel Cappellani in Missa ministrante - 10 Martii, 1906.

- Clericus ad munus Subdiaconi obeundum in Missa solemni nunquam deputetur, nisi adsit rationabilis causa et in minoribus ordinibus sit constitutus aut saltem sacra tonsura initiatus
- 2 Clericus pro Subdiacono inserviens, alba super amicitu, cingulo et tunica absque manipulo sit indutus, atque omnia quæ ad Subdiaconum ex Rubricis spectant rite expleat hisce tamen exceptis: a) aquam ante Offertorium in calicem non infundat, quod in casu Diaconus præstabit; b) calicem ipsam infra actionem nunquam tangat, neque pallam ab eodem removeat aut super eum reponat; c) post ablutionem calicem non abstergat (abstergenti ipso Celebrante) sed tantummodo illum componat more solito et velo cooperiat cum bursa et ad mensam deferat.
- Clericus qui loco Cappellani Episcopo vel Prælato in Missa lecta, aut alio Sacerdoti in Missa solemni sine Ministris inserviat, saltem tonsuratus esse debet, si alius Minister in sacris in promptu non est.
- 4. Clericus ipse omnia explere potest que in Cer. Episc. ib. 1, cap. 29 dicuntur, pro Missa ab Episcopo lecta, iis exceptis que supra n. 2 prohibentur Clerico munus Subdiaconi obeunti. Insuper a) calicem ante Offertorium non abstergat; b) nec vinum nec aquam in eo infundat; c) nec patenam cum hostia, nec calicem Celebranti tradat.
- 5. Calix pro Missa ab Episcopo vel a Prælato lecta, sicuti et pro Missa cantata sine Ministris, velo et bursa coopertus in abaco statuatur, amoto abusu illum non velatum retinendi, et ad altare discoopertum deferendi.
- 6. Calix ipse post Communionem a Celebrante rite abstersus a Clerico ministrante suis ornamentis instrui poterit, ac velo et bursa coopertus in abacum deferri.
- 7. Si vero Clericus sacra non sit tonsura initiatus, poterit quidem ab Episcopo aut a Prælato in Missa lecta uti Minister assumi, sed eo in casu calix velatus ante Missam ad altare deferatur, et more solito in medio mensæ super corporale statuatur; Clericus vero non tonsuratus ita se gerat ut in Missis a simplici Sacerdote celebratis. Poterit autem ad Missale Celebrantem assistere, folia vertere, palmatoriam sustinere; calix autem, ab ipso Celebrante suo tempore abstersus et velatus, ac in medio mensæ collocatus, absoluta Missa in Sacristiam deferatur.

RECORD OF DOCUMENTS FOR THE YEAR 1906.

I.—DECLARATION OF THE BISHOPS OF ENGLAND ON THE EDUCATION BILL. (April 23, 1906.)

The Archbishop and the Bishops of the province of Westminster, having most carefully considered the proposals made by the Government in the recently introduced Education Bill, are obliged to condenin them as fundamentally unjust -

"1. Because the Bill gives to local authorities the right of control of religious teaching in public elementary schools and the power of placing children under the continuous educational influence of those who may be indifferent or even hostile to the conscientious religious convictions of the parents of those children.

"2. Because while generous provision is made for the children of those parents who are able conscientiously to accept for their children what is styled "simple Bible teaching," the provision made for the children of those who conscientiously regard such teaching as not only inadequate, but absolutely inacceptable is quite insufficient, and inflicts upon such parents a very grievous civil disability, solely upon the ground of their conscientious re igious convictions.

"3. Because the clauses relating to endowments are such as to render it possible to confiscate and divert to uses for which they were never intended buildings and funds which owe their origin mainly to the desire of Catholics to provide for the teaching and maintenance of the Catholic faith."

II.—STATEMENT ON THE EDUCATION BILL BY THE STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE BISHOPS OF IRELAND. (May 1, 1906.)

"The clear, convincing, and, in our opinion, unanswerable statement, which our venerable brethren, the Bishops of England published last week on the Education Bill now before Parliament, relieves us of the necessity of discussing that measure in detail. They have demonstrated its unjust and partisan character, and they have declared in words that carry with them our heartiest assent, that it cannot be accepted by Catholics, or regarded by them as a settlement of the English School Question. It is founded essentially on anti-Catholic principles, and its aim is to establish a Nonconformist ascendancy over English elementary education. Its essence has been pithily described by its real authors as a measure to put 'the priest outside the schools and the Bible inside,' to be taught there by persons of any, or of no religion. That is a settlement in which Catholics can never acquiesce; for it is fundamentally at variance with our principles, and would imperil the very existence of our Church in England.

"The illusory character of the provision by which it is suggested that the religious interests of Catholics might be protected, has been already thoroughly exposed. We have only to remark that amongst all the Local Authorities in England and Wales on whose goodwill Catholics are asked to rely for the safety of their religion in the schools, there is scarcely any in which there is even as much as a substantial Catholic minority, and even if Catholics had on those bodies a working representation, it is a strange proposal to ask them to accept such a measure on the assurance that the men who are to be entrusted with the administration of it, may be relied upon to evade one of its most essential principles.

"If, then, the Ministry persist in this measure, there is nothing for it but resistance, to the utmost limit of constitutional action.

"To the appeal of our venerable brethren, the Bishops of England, we respond, not only for ourselves, but also, and with the utmost confidence, for our clergy, and for the faithful laity of Ireland, with the assurance that our Catholic people will take up this struggle as their own, and that, if our fellow Catholics in England, nine-tenths of whom are our own kith and kin, are oppressed, it shall never be said that we deserted them in their hour of need.

"As Bishops, charged with the care of the interests of religion, we make these statements with the greater confidence because this Education Bill is not an ordinary social or political measure dealing with secular affairs. Its whole scope and purpose is to interfere with religion. It is designed, under the dictation of one division of English Protestants, to give their religious views a ascendancy in the schools. Whatever may be said of it by its authors, it is a Bill to establish and endow Nonconformist Protestantism in the public elementary schools of England, and to put every other form of religious teaching under a ban.

"That is a violation of the principle of religious equality, and for Catholics, it is persecution for conscience sake. On such an issue there can be no doubt as to the action of Catholic Ireland. We shall rally to our own, in their fight for what is dearest to them and to us. Our representatives in Parliament will not fall short of what their countrymen in Ireland, as well as in England, expect of them. The greater Ireland beyond the seas will follow this struggle in defence of the weakest section of the Irish exiles with special interest and sympathy, and we have no doubt will join with us in giving every moral and material support to the men on whom will fall, in the first instance, the responsibility and the honour of defending the rights of our fellow Catholics in England.

" Cigned on behalf of the meeting,

" A MICHAEL CARD. LOGUE, "Chairman

RICHARD ALPHONSUS,

"Bishop of Waterford and Lismore;

· HENRY, Bishop of Down and Connor, "Secretaries to the Meeting."

III.—PASTORAL LETTER OF THE BISHOPS OF ENGLAND ON THE EDUCATION BILL. (September 21, 1906.)

The Archbishop and the Bishops of the province of Westminster have addressed the following Pastoral to the clergy and laity of England and Wales:—

- "Health and Benediction in the Lord.
- "DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN, AND DEAR CHILDREN IN JESUS CHRIST.

"The clear, simple, and perfectly just claims, which we put forth last Lent on behalf of our Catholic schools, have been disregarded and rejected by his Majesty's Ministers and by the House of Commons. We claimed that, because Catholic parents are equal in all things to their fellow-countrymen, as ratepayers, as citizens, as subjects of the same sovereign, as sharing all the privileges and burdens of the same nationality, they possess the right in justice to have their children educated in the elementary schools of the country in conformity with their conscientious religious convictions." The hopes that were then legitimately entertained, based as they were on many assurances publicly and privately given, have been shattered. The inequalities created by the Act of 1870 are perpetuated and extended; and if the present proposals become the law of the land, they will impose upon the Catholic Church in this country religious disabilities greater than any from which we have suffered for a very long period.

"We ask for three things: 'Catholic schools; Catholic teachers; effective Catholic oversight of all that pertains to religious teaching and influence.' All three alike have been denied to us.

"In the case of about half of our schools all public aid is refused, though rates will still be demanded of us, part of which will be devoted to a religious teaching alien from, and in many things opposed to, the teaching of the Catholic Church. These schools will be starved to death by the action of the Liberal Government, in defiance of all the principles to which it owes its appellation. Then in the areas where, under these circumstances, no Catholic public elementary school can any longer exist, Catholic parents may be left under the compulsion of the law to send their children to non-Catholic schools in opposition to the dictates of their conscience. The Government is thereby creating a situation of peculiar difficulty and delicacy, in which Catholics may be obliged to disregard a law which is manifestly unjust, and to obey, rather she law of God, which no legislature has power to abrogate or set aside.

"In those schools in which it may, according to the provisions of the Bill, be possible to teach Catholic doctrine to Catholic children, no guarantee whatever is given that the teachers shall be Catholics. We are told to trust to the goodwill and fair less of the Local Authorities. Such assurances are unworthy of serious legislation.

"Lastly, the oversight which the Catholic Church has always claimed in connectioni with the religious teaching and influence to which her children are entrusted, receives no recognition of any kind; but, like the appointment of teachers, it is left absolutely to those who, if they are candid, would be the first to acknowledge that they are not competent to deal with matters of this character.

"It is unnecessary to state the position at greater length. Our claims are well known to all who care to know them. Their justice is clear to all those who will cast prejudice from their minds. They have been set forth on many occasions and on many platforms, and nowhere more eloquently or more forcibly than by the Catholic members in the House of Commons. Our public appeal now lies to the House of Lords, and we call upon the members of that House to prevent the injustice which is contemplated, and to see that fair treatment is meted out to all parents alike, without violating the religious convictions of any.

"But in this most grave crisis, while we feel the need of bringing home continually to all who have influence in the country our sense of the unfairness of the proposals of the Government, we are conscious that our appeal for justice must first be to God Himself, 'by whom kings reign and lawgivers decree just things.' month of October, which has been dedicated for so many years to special prayer for the needs of the Church, through the intercession of the Blessed Mother of God, under the title of Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, gives us a fitting opportunity for more servent and united prayer. Exhort your people, dear Brethren in Jesus Christ, to greater earnestness and devotion. Make known to them most clearly the gravity of the issues which are involved, and awaken in them a spirit of strong and trustful supplication, that the Divine Spirit may guide us all in our resistance to the wrong which may be done to our children, and in our efforts to avert it.

"For this reason we enjoin: first, that the usual October devotions be this year celebrated with more than ordinary are in all our churches; secondly, that, throughout the month, the prayers Pro congregatione et familia (No. 8) or other Imperata, as directed by the local Ordinary, be added in Holy Mass and Benediction, whenever the rubrics permit; thirdly, that the faithful be exhorted to receive Holy Communion on Sunday, October 21st, which immediately precedes the reassembling of Parliament; and fourthly, that, wherever possible, the Blessed Sacrament be exposed throughout that day.

"Given on the Feast of St. Matthew, and appointed to be read in all the churches and chapels of the Province of Westminster on Sunday, September the 30th, 1906."

IV.—DECLARATION OF THE BISHOPS OF IRELAND ON MIXED RESIDENTIAL COLLEGES AND ON CONTROL OF CATHOLIC PRIMARY SCHOOLS. (October 10, 1906.)

The following resolutions were passed unanimously by the Irish Archbishops and Bishops at their annual meeting held in Maynooth on the 10th of October, Cardinal Logue presiding:—

- "As it has come to our knowledge that mixed residential colleges have been established by the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction, we have to direct the attention of the faithful to the following declaration of the Bishops published on the 16th of May, 1899:—
- "'We desire to impress upon the local bodies concerned the primary importance in the establismhent and direction of Technical Schools and Colleges of avoiding anything to which Catholics should object on religious grounds, whether in the teaching or in other departments of such schools and colleges. It has been the duty of the Bishops to repeatedly warn their people against the institution of mixed residences for Catholics and Protestants. The principle already so successfully maintained for many years in the working of training colleges in Great Britain, and applied within recent times with the best results in the case of similar institutions in Ireland, should be followed in this also if residential institutions are to be set up."
- * "In addition to this, a decree of the last Synod of Maynootha which has been already sanctioned by the Holy See, enacts as follows:—
- "'Since it appears to us that instruction in technical subjects and in agriculture is highly useful, and even necessary, for our people, we consider it permissible for Catholic youth to frequent schools attended by non-Catholics where this instruction, as distinct from a general training or education, is given. We, however, strictly forbid Catholics to reside with non-Catholics in such schools, unless on special grounds the Bishop of the place judge otherwise in particular cases.'
- "Whilst we are prepared to support an agitation for the reform of the National Board that will give adequate representation to the educational interests of our people, we wish to warn our priests and people against any movement that may result in a change calculated to interfere with the authority or control of the Catholic managers of National schools."
- V.—LETTER OF SYMPATHY FROM THE BISHOPS OF IRELAND TO THE BISHOPS OF FRANCE. (October 10, 1906.)

A letter in French, of which the following is a translation, was addressed by the Irish Hierarchy, on the occasion of their October meeting at Maynooth, to his Eminence Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris:—

"Your Eminence,

"The warm friendship which has always bound the Catholics of Ireland to their brethren in France and the signal favours which we have often received from the great and generous French nation make it a special duty for us to share in your cares and sorrows, as you shared in ours in the days of our struggles for the faith of Jesus Christ.

"We take occasion, therefore, of our annual meeting to express to your Eminence, to the venerable Episcopate of France, to the clergy and the Catholic people of your country, our deep and most fraternal sympathy in the midst of the bitter trials through which you are passing to-day.

'With the Catholics of the whole world, we rejoice at the firm and dignified attitude you maintain in presence of the dangers which threaten you. Your spirit of unity and of faith; your admirable fidelity to the most glorious traditions of France; your confidence so entire and so striking in the guidance and advice of the august Pontiff whose duty it is to watch over the supreme interests of the Church, are for us an object of just admiration, and leave us no doubt as to the issue of a conflict which it was not in your power to avoid.

"We Irish Bishops are the sons of a Church which has known suffering. The liberties which we have won are the fruits of centuries of abnegation and sacrifice on the part of our predecessors and of their noble people. We are deeply convinced that the faith of Catholic France will likewise come forth stronger and purer from the trials to which it is now subjected, and that the Church of St. Louis, far from faltering, will acquire new strength to fulfil its glorious and Divine mission.

"With sentiments of the most profound veneration, we are, your Eminence's most faithful and devoted servants in Christ.

"Signed on behalf of all the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland,

" MICHAEL CARDINAL LOGUE, Archbishop of Armagh

" RICHARD,

Bishop of Waterford and Lismore,

" HENRY,

Bishop of Down and Connor, Secretaries "

VI.—REPLY OF THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF PARIS, ON BEHALF OF THE BISHOPS OF FRANCE, TO THE LETTER OF THE IRISH BISHOPS. (October 21, 1906.)

The following letter, dated Paris, October 21st, is a translation of the reply of his Eminence Cardinal Richard to the letter of the Irish Hierarchy received from Cardinal Logue:

" MOST EMINENT AND MOST REVEREND LORD.

"The letter which your Eminence had the great kindness to address to me in the name of all the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland recalls the warm friendship that has always bound the Catholics of Ireland to their brethren in France. This friendship is once more affirmed by your fraternal participation in our cares and trials.

"Amongst all the children of the Church the Irish have given the most striking proofs of inviolable constancy. The Catholics of Ireland have kept the faith of St. Patrick in spite of three centuries of persecution. Neither tribulation nor famine nor the sword was able to separate you from Jesus Christ and His Vicar.

"May we, by a courage as persevering as yours, be able to win back the liberty which you now enjoy. Your O'Connell, who was its most eloquent defender, wished that his heart should rest in Rome. That is the symbol of your unalterable attachment to the Holy See. We ask God for strength to imitate your admirable fidelity.

"I have regarded it as a duty to communicate your beautiful letter to all my colleagues of the French Episcopate.

"I beg your Eminence to be the interpreter of our deep gratitude to our venerable brothers, their Lordships the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland, and to accept the homage of my profound veneration.

"Your Eminence's most humble and devoted servant,

"Archbishop of Paris."

His Grace the Archbishop, anxious to extend the blessings of the Devotion to the Most Holy Eucharist as widely as possible through the Diocese, will receive with pleasure, applications from Priests, Heads of Religious Institutions, and others in charge of Chapels and Oratories, for the appointment of Days for the Devotion of the Forty Hours. Furthermore, in order that the attention of the devout faithful may by every means be turned towards this great Devotion to the Most Holy Sacrament, and to the opportunities offered for practising it, His Grace directs that the List be placed in the Porch, or some other conspicuous position in all Churches, where it may be seen by the people, and that it be hung suitably framed, in the Reception or Waiting Rooms of all Colleges, Convents, and Religious Institutions.

In order that persons wishing to visit the Blessed Sacrament during the Forty Hours Exposition may not be disappointed, the Parish Priests, Administrators, and Heads of Religious Institutions, are requested to observe accurately the order set down in the foregoing List.

Fránciscan Convent

OF THE

Perpetual Adoration,

ST. MARY OF THE ANGELS, DRUMSHAMBO, CO. LEITRIM, IRELAND.

Established Feast of the Epiphany, 6th January, 1864, by the Most Rev. John Kilduff, D.D., Lord Bishop of Ardagh and Clonmacnoise.

Adoration is a branch of the Seraphic Family of St. Francis of Assisi, and is cloistered and contemplative. The object of the Institute is to offer unceasing praise to the Most Blessed Sacrament Exposed by the chanting of the Divine Office and the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin in choir at the canonical hours, Matins being chanted at midnight; and to offer also unceasing prayer by the Perpetual Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament, which continues hour by hour without intermission both day and night.

Side Chapels on to the Sanctuary allow the public to share in the inestimable privilege of the Exposition during the daytime, from Holy Mass at 7 a.m. until Benediction at 6 p.m.

An Association of the Perpetual Adoration for persons in the world, enriched with many indulgences, is attached to this Convent. Persons desiring to become associated can obtain all particulars by applying to the Rev. Mother Abbess.

URSULINE CONVENT,

ST. MARY'S, WATERFORD.

Established 1816.

The Convent has two Schools, quite distinct, each occupying a separate building. In the Boarding School the course of studies is arranged on University lines; the Pupils go in for the Examinations of the Royal University of Ireland and for those of the Intermediate Board. In St. Anne's High School the Studies and Examinations include the University and Intermediate Programmes. In both Schools Examinations in Music are held annually.

Careful attention is also given to the useful branches that form part of a girl's education, as well as to the various accomplishments, Music (Organ, Piano, Harp, Violin, Zither, etc., etc.), Singing, Drawing and Painting, Wood Carving, Dancing, Calisthenics, etc., etc.

Classes in Religious Knowledge are held daily in both Schools, and constant care is bestowed upon the Religious, Moral, and Physical Development of the Pupils.

Training Department, St. Augustine's College.

Recognised as a College for the Training of Teachers by the Teachers' Training Syndicate of the University of Cambridge.

The object of St. Augustine's College is to enable educated women to go through a course of systematic training for the teaching profession, and so to qualify for the Diploma granted by the University of Cambridge for proficiency in the Theory and Practice of Teaching. The Examinations, conducted by Professors deputed by the University, have been held every year, in the month of June, at St. Augustine's College, since June, 1899.

N.B.—Intending Students who have not passed prescribed Entrance Examination may qualify in the University Classes of the Convent Boarding School. The Course of Study as prescribed for the Cambridge Certificate comprises THE THEORY, THE HISTORY, AND THE PRACTICE OF EDUCATION.

ST. URSULA'S COLLEGE OF DOMESTIC SCIENCE & HOUSEKBEPING

For Young Ladies who have concluded their literary studies, a New Department, with highly qualified Teachers, was opened in October, 1904.

HOW FARRIS'S BEES' WAX CANDLES ARE MADE.

Vide "British Journal of Commerce," January 28th, 1893.

"A quantity of cottons are hung upon frames, each cotton being finished with a metal tagend so as to prevent the wax from adhering to the ends of the cottons or wicks. The frames thus p are carried to a heater filled with melted pure bees' wax. The regulations of the ancient Church of that pure vegetable products only may be used. A frame is held in the hand of the workman, who was likely with the melted wax, and pours the liquid down first one cotton and then the next, and until the whole of the cottons around the frame have been first-coated. This coat of wax is allowed and then the process of dipping the vessel into the melted wax and pouring is repeated, until the are of the required diameter. When the candles have been coated, clothed, fed, or 'made up' required size, they are taken off the frame and placed elsewhere. In the next process the candles are in the hands of the workmen and rolled upon a finely polished stone or marble slab; the bottoms are and trimmed square and true, the moulded top is shaped with properly formed tubes or dies, done so beautifully and skilfully that wax candles are made of any length and diameter which a desired, from the tiniest tapers for the Christmas tree to the huge candles for the high altar great cathedrals."

OIL REFINER TO

H.M. GOVERNMENT.

FARRIS'S SANCTUARY OIL

A Vegetable Oil of Absolute Purity.

Same as supplied to Westminster and St. George's Cathedrals.

CHARLES FARRIS calls special attention to his Pure Vegetal Sanctuary Oil which he confidently recommends on according of its absolute freedom from any kind of impurity; it but brightly with the ordinary floating wick for a period of least 2 days, and the full time with the 5 and 8-day with without requiring attention, giving a pure, soft, white its during the whole period.

ONE GALLON WILL LAST 1,184 HOURS.

Supplied in 1, 2 and 3-gallon cans. 5 and 10-gallon drams brass taps.

A reduction of 6d, per gallon is made when taking a cask of ab 40 gallons. Cask and tap free.

It is recommended to order a cask, if convenient, as the oil ke best in wood.

Cans and Drums are not charged.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO SACRISTANS AND OTHERS.

A MISTAKEN NOTION is very prevalent that when the light in the Sanctuan Lamp does not burn well, the fault lies with the wick and not the oil. The excontrary is the case; the wick merely acting as a means of conveying the oil of consumption, any impurity in the oil is carried to the wick, the wick practically be a filter, a crust forms, ultimately causing the light to go out.

Our Lady's Mount, KILKENNY.

THIS Establishment has been opened for the accommodation of a few ladies of the better class, with some means at their disposal, who might be anxious to secure for themselves a peaceful and quiet home.

The Institution is under the care and supervision of the Nuns of St. John of God, whose Convent is close by, and who devote themselves to promoting the comfort and happiness of the ladies in every particular.

The house has been recently fitted up, and will be found to afford perfect accommodation in every way to promote the health and comfort of the lady boarders.

It stands in the centre of beautifully laid out grounds, and though quite near the city, is yet perfectly retired.

The lady residents, without leaving the Convent grounds, can have free access at all times to the beautiful new Church of St. Patrick's Parish, which is attached to the Convent, and is quite close to our Lady's Mount.

The Institution is under the patronage of His Lordship the Bishop of Ossory, who kindly permits references to be made to him.

Convent of the Visitation,

ROSELANDS, WALMER, KENT.

Under the Patronage of His Grace the Archbishop of Westminster and of His Lordship the Bishop of Southwark.

Recognised by the Board of Education according to the Order in Council. Staff of Certificated and Registered Teachers.

This Establishment offers to the pupils all the advantages of a superior English Education, the comforts and refining influences of home life going hand in hand with the highest intellectual culture. The Convent is beautifully situated at a short distance from the sea, and is surrounded by extersive grounds, to which additions have been made by recent purchases. The Church and its artistic tower, the Convent and School buildings have been erected according to the designs of Messrs. Pugin & Pugin, Architects, and are heated and ventilated throughout after the most modern system. Individual care is given to each pupil. The air is most beneficial to delicate girls, many of whom after a short residence in the Convent have become strong and healthy.

For many years the Convent has been a private centre for the Oxford Local and Higher Local Examinations, and a centre for the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music; the successes achieved by those of the pupils who have desired to be presented for the examinations are a convincing proof of the efficiency of the teaching they receive. The School is conducted on the most approved and modern system, in addition to which a thorough knowledge of Continental languages, with fluent conversation in the same, is assured; and, if desired, pupils are prepared for the Higher Local and Honours Examination for Women in Modern Languages, by natives highly certificated. The Piano, Violin, and all accomplishments are thoroughly and efficiently taught.

The Railway Station is within a short distance of the Convent.

For further particulars, apply to the Rev. Mother Superior.

References to the parents of present and former pupils in England, Ireland, and the Continent.

The following is an extract from the Tablet, written by Lady Georgiana Fullerton:—

"Of the merits of St. Francis of Sales' Daughters, whether as nuns or teachers, little need be said. In his day they were called by the common people 'the holy Maries,' and the spirit bequeathed to them by their Founder and their first Mother, St. Jane Frances de Chantal, has not departed from amongst them. . If parents want for their children bracing sea air . . . joined to all the other advantages of a good Convent School, they could not find them better supplied than at Roselands."

Telegraph and Post Office Clongowes Wood, Railway Station, Salline.

Glongowes Wood Gollege,

FATHERS, and aims at giving its Pupils a complete and thorough education—Primary, Intermediate, Commercial, and University.

Boys, may now, without leaving Clongowes, advance from the most elementary stage to the first University Examination (Royal), while enjoying the advantages and safeguards of country life in a healthy district.

COURSE OF STUDIES.

To secure effective teaching and management, the College is divided into four distinct departments—PREPARATORY, INTERMEDIATE, UNIVERSITY, and COMMERCIAL.

I. THE PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

This Department is intended for Children from seven to eleven. They are kept apart from the rest of the Boys, having their own Play and Study Rooms, and their Dormitories in a separate wing. They have the benefit of female attendance, and such modifications of Discipline and Studies as suit their tender years, while they are being prepared effectively for the higher departments.

II. THE INTERMEDIATE DEPARTMENT.

This Department is mainly intended for those following the course prescribed by the Board of Intermediate Education, which includes among other subjects, Greek, Latin, English, Irish, French, German, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Bookkeeping, Drawing, and Music.

The publications of the results of the Intermediate Examinations.

1905, puts Clongowes at the head of all Colleges in Ireland.

III. THE UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT.

This Department is in connection with the Royal University, and enables Boys to Matriculate and pass the first University Examination.

The Students of the University Department have a separate table and better fare, and whilst subordinate to the College discipline, are treated with a liberality their maturer years would seem to call tor.

IV. THE COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Boys are specially trained for all Commercial Examinations, such as entrance Examinations to Banks, Guinness's, &c. Accordingly, Shorthand, Type-writing, Bookkeeping, Précis, Manuscript, Summaries, Tots, &c., are taught by competent Masters.

The Religious training of the Boys in Doctrine and Morals forms the main feature of the Jesuit educational system. A course of religious instruction, comprising Scripture, Church History, and Christian Doctrine is obligatory on all. Large money prizes are offered for proficiency in it, and no Boy can obtain a medal, prize or distinction in any other subject who fails to qualify in religious knowledge.

ESTABLISHED 1834.

This Seminary is situated on an eminence which is surrounded by scenery of exquisite beauty. The healthfulness of its position renders it a perfect Sanitorium—a fact fully recognised by the Medical Faculty, and illustrated by the healthy appearance of the pupils. Its proximity to the City not only makes it easy of access, but also confers on it many important educational advantages. The recreation grounds, which are very extensive and beautifully laid out, include Cricket and Football Grounds, Handball Courts, and a Gymnasium, thus affording every advantage for those outdoor exercises, which contribute in such an eminent degree to the health and physical development of Youth.

The School Course comprises everything essential to a thorough preparation for Commercial pursuits, together with the Greek, Latin Irish and French Languages, Mathematics, Shorthand, Typewriting, Experimental Science, Drawing and Music. There is a fully equipped, Laboratory for the use of the pupils of the Science Classes.

There is a Special Course for Students intended for Mercantile pursuits, the Bank, and Civil Service appointments.

RELIGIOUS TRAINING.

The Religious Training of the pupils holds a very prominent place in the education received at St. Joseph's. All possible care is taken to secure for the pupils the most healthy moral surroundings, which are so important in the formation of character. And those charged with their instruction exert all their energies not only to adorn the minds of the pupils with useful knowledge, but also to instil into their hearts solid virtue and a practical love of the duties which they have to discharge in after-life.

RECREATION.

During playhours the pupils are always under the careful supervision of some members of the Community, who preside over the games as well as the studies, and other exercises of the students. Billiards and other suitable indoor games have been provided for them when the weather does not permit the use of outdoor games. There is also a library well stocked with books suitable to the ages and tastes of the St. John's College is a spacious building, of elegant architectural design, erected on an eminence overlooking the City of Waterford. The situation is in the highest degree healthful. The air, tempered by the sea-breeze, is fresh and bracing. The grounds, extending over five-and-twenty acres, are adorned with magnificent Forest trees of great variety and beauty; and all the arrangements of the Institution are adapted with exquisite care for the purpose of collegiate life.

The main object of St. John's College is the Ecclesiastical Education of Candidates for the Ministry of the Altar in the United Dioceses of Waterford and Lismore; but it receives Students from all parts of Ireland, and never fails to provide suitable mission for them, when, by exact observance of rule and successful study, they entitle themselves to recommendation.

The various departments of Sacred Science are conducted by Professors of acknowledged ability and experience in teaching, who spare no pains to develop the intelligence of their pupils and mould it in ecclesiastical form of thought; whilst the entire system of discipline fosters the growth of plety, humility, obedience, and all other virtues of the clerical state.

To clerical students from other dioceses, St. John's College offers advantages, physical, moral, and intellectual, unsurpassed by any other College in these kingdoms. No distinction is made between them and the subjects of the Diocese of Waterford and Lismors.

The pension is 30 guineas per annum, to be paid in advance, half-yearly on 1st of September and 1st March.

Elocution Edmund Burke, Esq., B.A. l'hysician James White, Esq., M.D.

bi. Kieran's College is a beautiful, spacious Gothic building srocted on an elevated site in the midst of extensive grounds. The situation is exceedingly salubrious, and the health record of the students has always been eminently satisfactory.

In the Ecclesiastical Department, Candidates for the Sacred Ministry are educated for the Home and Foreign Missions, and several Burses are available every year for both classes of Students.

The Lay Students are prepared for the Intermediate, University, Civil Service, and other Public Examinations; and their seal is stimulated by Weekly Revisions, and by the public distribution of marks and premiums.

Parents are earnestly requested to send their children at an early age, as success in the Intermediate Course cannot otherwise be hoped for. Special arrangements have been made to provide for the wants of the younger boys.

Great care is bestowed upon the training of the Students in Elecution, and the sevices of the distinguished Elecutionist, Mr. Surke, have been secured.

While the Moral and Religious training of the Students hold first place in the hearts of the Superiors, great attention is paid to the fostering of orderly and gentlemanly habits, to the dietary, and to the sanitary arrangements of the College.

St. Jarlath's College,

TUAM,

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF

HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP.

Dresident:

VERY REV. M. CANON HIGGINS, D.D.

The natural advantages of this College, its salubrious and picturesque situation, its extensive grounds, and the perfection of its sanitary arrangements are the best guarantee for the robust health which has always charaterised its students.

A new addition—comprising Refectory, Study Hall, and Dormitory—has been added to the College which affords much additional accommodation for students, and the most modern and approved sanitary arrangements have been introduced. In recent years hot-water pipes have been introduced into all parts of the College.

The course of studies embraces Latin, Greek, English, Irish, French, Mathematics, Experimental Physics, Chemistry, Drawing and Music—Vocal and Instrumental, arranged in accordance with the Intermediate Programme for all Grades and the Programme of the Agricultural and Technical Education Board for the four years courses. Students are also prepared for the Matriculation Examinations of the Royal University of Ireland.

In recent years the Students of St. Jarlath's College have won some of the most coveted distinctions at the Intermediate Examinations, viz., in successive years the medal for first place in Greek and in Latin, in Junior, Middle, and Senior Grade; first places in Greek and Latin Composition in Junior, Middle, and Senior Grade, and several other composition prizes, also a "Rurke Memorial" Prize. They have won first and second places in the Ancient Classics in the three grades, and first place in Experimental Physics, in addition to several exhibitions and prizes. At the Matriculation Examinations of the Royal University some of its students have obtained "First Honours."

The Pension is exceedingly moderate, £24 per annum. Prospectus and further particulars may be had on application to the President.

BLACKROCK COLLEGE,

DUBLIN.

This College, conducted by the Fathers of the Society of the Holy Ghost, is situated on the South Coast of Dublin Bay, within a few miles of the City, with which there is both Tramway and Railway connection. It possesses every facility for promoting the physical intellectual, and moral development of both boys and young men. The efficiency of its system is attested by its well-known successes at the various Examinations, and by the high positions filled by its past students in various careers.

There are Four Departments in Blackrock College:-

- 1. The Preparatory Department for boys under 12.
- 2. The intermediate Department for all branches of liberal studies
- This course embraces Ancient and Modern Languages, History and Geography, Mathematics, Physical and Natural Sciences, Elocution, Music, and Drawing.

Since the Intermediate Examinations began in 1879, Blackrock has held a foremost place among the Intermediate Colleges in the country by the number and excellence of the distinctions won by its students.

- The Commercial Department provides instruction for those who are intended for commercial pursuits, or may desire to be specially instructed in the subjects appertaining to commerce, such as Shorthand, Typewriting, &c.
- 4. The Civil Service and University Department to prepare for University Degrees and for various Civil Service Examinations. This Department, known as Blackrock University College, is an entirely separate establishment in which the students have their own private rooms. It is conducted under a liberal but well regulated regime suited to the requirements of young men preparing for life in the world, and at the same time excluding the dangers necessarily connected with residence in the city.

THE COLLEGE, which commands a splendid view of some of the noblest landscape and mountain scenery in Ireland, stands in an extremely healthy and picturesque position, in the midst of a grand demesne of varied lawn and woodland, containing a large and beautiful lake admirably suited for safe boating and bathing. The recreation grounds, thirty acres in extent, include excellent football and cricket fields, tennis and ball courts, and a well laid-out cycle track over 800 yards long. Rockwell thus, besides enjoying an exceptionally healthy and attractive site in a rich open country, possesses unique advantages for those out-door exercises which contribute so much to the vigour and development of youth. The College Buildings, to which a new Chapel, a new Play Hall, 180 feet long, and a New Wing costing $5,000. have recently been added, afford the Students excellent and ample accommodation. Students excellent and ample accommodation.

The Course of STUDIES is based on the Intermediate Programme, but makes fullest additional provision for the thorough education of all Students whatsoever. It includes English, Irish, Classics, Modern Languages, History and Geography, Mathematics and Sciences, Drawing, Music, Shorthand and Typewriting, and the various other branches of a sound and high-class liberal education. There are SPECIAL COURSES for Commercial Life, the Civil Service, the Learned Professions, and the Royal University. There is a special ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT for boys under 12 years of age.

RECORD OF SUCCESSES, 1895-1906.

Since 1895-1906 Rockwell has stood in the First Rank amongst the Colleges and Schools of Ireland. During the last ten years the following passes and distinctions have been won:—

1,151 Students 'passed' the Examinations,

669 Students won distinctions, amongst which were—

233 Exhibitions (value 210 to 250 each);

233 Exhibitions (value £10 to £50 each);
13 Medais (Gold, Silver, Bronze) for First Places;
84 Prizes for Composition in various languages. Greek,
Latin, Irish. English, French, German and Italian.
183 Commercial and Minor Prizes.
In the Royal University Rockwell has achieved similar successes; gaining numerous Exhibitions and honours, besides 3 Scholarships of £190 each. A Past Rockwell Student won recently the Junior Fellowship in Modern Literature in the Royal University.
Many Rockwell Students have also passed into the Civil Service, Banks, Commerce and the learned professions, and have taken leading places in Maynooth and other Ecclesiastical Colleges.

PENSION £30 A YEAR.

In Rockwell SCHOLASTICATE (five minutes' walk from the College). STODENTS OF THE HOLY GHOST ORDER pursue their Classical Studies. Candidates having a true vocation are admitted at moderate terms.

For Prospectus and full particulars apply to the President

ST. FLANNAN'S COLLEGE,

ENNIS.

patron: MOST REV. MICHAEL FOGARTY, D.D., Bishop of Killalos.

President: VERY REV. PETER BOURKE.

Fice-Bresident: REV. RICHARD O'CONNELL.

St. Flannan's College stands on a limestone plateau about ten minutes' walk from Ennis, and fifteen minutes from the Railway Station.

Owing to its limestone surroundings, and to the fact that the sea is near enough to have its beneficial influence felt, the College enjoys a climate wonderfully like to that of far-famed Lisdoonvarna.

The system of Sanitation, outside and inside the buildings, is thoroughly up-to-date and perfect in every detail—the greatest attention being bestowed on the neatness and cleanliness of the rooms, corridors, cloisters, and class halls.

Hence the health record of the College is unique. Not only is there a complete absence of all diseases, but boys with weak and delicate constitutions have grown strong and healthy during their term of residence.

There is a competent staff of masters for the Languages, for Mathematical Subjects, for Experimental Science and Drawing, and also for Music, both Vocal and Instrumental. The several class halls are fully furnished and equipped. A thoroughly sound education is imparted, which is invariably followed by success in after life, no matter what profession or business career is embraced.

The Course of Studies is destined to prepare boys for Ecclesiastical Colleges, for University, Intermediate, and Professional Examinations, as wel! as for Commercial life.

A reduction is made in the pension in the case of brothers, also in the case of promising boys of thirteen years and under.

For Prospectus and further particulars apply to

COLLEGE OF THE INNACULATE CONCEPTION,

Patron:—The Right Rev. JOHN CLANCY, D.D., Bishop of Elphin.

Bresident:—Very Rev. MARTIN KIELTY, D.D.

HIS College is situate in Sligo, on healthful and spacious grounds. The buildings are extensive, and have been erected specially for Educational purposes. Every portion of the Establishment is carefully arranged with a view to the health, comfort, and good order of the Pupils. Open Cloisters for recreation in wet weather, are attached to the Recreation Grounds.

The studies are fully organised in three distinct courses, viz.:—

- (a) University and Intermediate Course.
- (b) Science and Technological Course.
- (c) Civil Service and Commercial Course.

No expense has been spared to secure the best Masters and the most approved equipment to meet the requirements of Candidates following, respectively, each of these Courses.

The younger Boys are specially prepared for Confirmation and First Communion.

Drill and Gymnastics are practised by all the Students, but only during recreation hours, so as not to interfere with study or class-work.

In all their recreations, whether within or outside the College Grounds, the Pupils are always accompanied by some of the Clergymen. The Superiors and Professors also take their meals with them in the Refectory.

A Matron watches over the wants of the Younger Boys, and gives maternal care to all in case of illness.

The greatest care is paid to the dietary of the Student, and to the sanitary arrangements of the College. In addition to the fresh water baths, which are in ordinary use, sea-bathing will be provided in the season for all Students, subject to the advice of the College Physician.

Reports will be regularly made to parents and guardians on the conduct, application, improvement, and health of the pupils.

Torms and Particulars may be known by applying to the President.

NOVITIATE OF THE MARIST BROTHERS.

MOUNT ST. MICHAEL, DUMFRIES.

The Religious Congregation of the Little Brothers of Mary, usually called the Marist Brothers, was founded in 1817, by the Abbé Champagnat, and introduced into the British Isles in 1852, and into the Colonies in 1867.

The rapid development of the Congregation has enabled the Brothers to open, besides their very numerous Schools in France and the British Isles, houses in South Africa. Australia, New Caledonia, Fiji, Samoa, New Zealand, the Seychelles, Italy, Spain, Denmark, Canada, the United States, Columbia, Algeria, China, Turkey, Mexico, and Brazil.

But it is chiefly to supply the Schools of the British Isles with Religious Teachers that the Brothers have erected a commodious Novitiate on the beautiful grounds of Mount St. Michael, Dumfries.

Young men desirous of joining the Order may apply for particulars to the Superior as above.

Pensionnat St. Vincent de Paul. IRBTITTTE BCEEPPERS.

Conducted by the Brothers of Our Lady of Mercy.

(Founded by the late Right Rev. Monsignor Canon Scheppers.) MALINES, BELGIUM.

This Establishment is very large, and agreeably situated in a most healthy locality. Its object is to prepare young gentlemen for the different professions of society, by a solid instruction and accomplished education, grounded upon thoroughly religious principles.

The French language, wherein all the branches of instruction are taught, must be constantly spoken by the pupils; great care is bestowed on pronunciation.

The pension (washing, the use of bedding and other requisites included) is 24 guineas per annum.

English and German languages, music, and academical drawing are taught at a moderate extra charge.

NOVITIATES OF THE

BROTHERS OF THE CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS,

De La Salle Retreat,

CASTLETOWN, MOUNTRATH, QUEEN'S COUNTY.

The Institute of the Brothers of the Christian Schools is a religious Congregation, having for its external object the Christian education of youth, especially of the poor.

This Institute was founded at Rheims, France, in 1680, by Saint John Baptist De La Salle. It was approved, in 1725, by our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XIII., who issued to that effect the Bull "In Apostolica Dignitatis Solio."

The Establishments conducted by the Brothers comprise Elementary, Middle Class, Art, and Agricultural Schools, Colleges, Orphanages, and Training Schools for Teachers.

The most suitable age for entering the Institute is from 16 to 25 years. Candidates may, however, be admitted from 14 to 16, into the Preparatory Novitiates, in order to test their vocation, and to prepare themselves for the Novitiate proper.

THE QUALITIES INDISPENSABLE ARE ;

I. PHYSICAL.—Health and strength to endure the fatigue of teaching, an ordinary stature, and gentlemanly appearance.

II. INTELLECTUAL—A good judgment, ability either to acquire the necessary instruction, or to exercise some of the ordinary offices in the Community.

III. MORAL.—A docile and sociable disposition, detachment from worldly interests, zeal for the glory of God, for the salvation of children, and for his own perfection.

Every candidate is required, on entering the Novitiate, to bring with him the following documents:—1st. A letter of recommendation from his Parish Priest or Confessor: 2nd. Certificates of Baptism and Registrar's Certificate of Birth; 3rd. A Doctor's Certificate of good health; 4th. The consent, in writing, of his parents, unless he is of age.

The board for the first year is £20. This sum should be paid on entering. A sufficiency of clothing is also required. To facilitate the entrance of some, the pension will be received by instalments, and in exceptional cases of well-educated aspirants, may be consider.

ably reduced.

VIn 1902, the Order reckoned 1,560 Houses, 15,472 Brothers, 1,048 Scholastics, 1,068 Novices, 2,597 Postulants, 2,009 Schools, 8,409 Classes, containing an aggregate of 354,256 Pupils.

Particulars may be obtained at any of the Houses of the Institute.
Analization for admission should be addressed to Brother
Dorotheus, De La Salle Retreat, Castletown, Mountrath, Queen's County.

This Institute maintains and educates girls in everything necessary to fit them for Domestic Service, such as Cooking, Washing, Needlework, Housework, etc.

The girls who wish to be instructed in these duties must remain at least two years in training, at the expiration of which time they thoroughly understand their business, and are then provided with good situations and necessary outfit.

As the Orphanage has no Government grant or emoluments from any source, the Bishop, in consideration of the amount of good done, has authorized a Collector to receive Subscriptions towards the support of the Institute.

In addition to the Orphanage and Training Department, the Sisters also receive a limited number of respectable children, whose parents are unable to meet the expenses of a High Class Boarding School.

The Course of Instruction comprises English in all its branches, French, also Plain and Ornamental Needlework.

Pension, £12 per annum. Music is the only extra.

The Pupils are afterwards provided with various positions as Teachers, Governesses, etc., either at home or in foreign countries.

This Establishment is situated about five miles from the town of Maryborough. The extensive grounds attached, and the pure invigorating air of the surrounding hills, render it a most healthy and desirable place for children.

For full particulars apply to the Superioress.

St. Patrick's Refuge,

UNDER THE CARE OF THE SISTERS OF MERCY,

CROFTON ROAD, KINGSTOWN,

IRELAND.

A SHARE in your CHARITY is earnestly solicited for this poor Magdalen Asylum, which was founded in Bow Street in the year 1796. The Institution was subsequently transferred to Dominick Street, and in 1857 to Glasthule. Finally the penitents were removed, in 1850, to the present spacious building erected for them in Kingstown.

Some of these poor, destitute members of society have grown grey in their persevering efforts to cling, like Magdalen, to the Cross, and never to return to that world which shaded their young days with sorrow. Others are only entering on a career of penance—that dreary way which mercy seeks to brighten—with the bitterness of disappointed hopes, which mercy strives to sweeten and with the renouncement of those earthly joys, the falsity of which mercy endeavours to pourtray.

This is the good work for which an appeal is now made to those generous hearts ever found ready to aid the suffering.

The Sisters of Mercy would also remind a liberal public that this is by no means a local charity.

Prayers are daily offered for the spiritual and temporal welfare of living benefactors, and for the repose of the souls of deceased benefactors.

A debt of some thousands of pounds, incurred by the erection of the new Refuge, still hangs over the Asylum, and it is to relieve the Sisters of Mercy from part of this heavy responsibility and to aid them in maintaining the poor penitents that your assistance is now asked.

Surely they who contribute according to their means, to make the Asylum a comfortable and happy home for these poor peritoria, are performing a great act of charity, and may expect a magnificent reward, for "Mercy exaiteth itself above Julgment."

Donations will be gratefully received by his Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin; Very Rev. W. J. Murphy, P.P., Kingstown; at the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy, Beggot Street, Dublin; and at St. Patrick's Refuge, Crofton Road, Kingstown, Ireland, by Sister M. A. Connolly, Superioress.

ST. JOSEPH'S

African Missionary Society,

CORK.

Founded under the special blessing of the Sovereign Pontiff and the Lord Bishop of Cork.

THE SOCIETY OF AFRICAN MISSIONS comprises Priests, Brothers, and Nuns. It was established at the earnest request and with the special benediction of Pope Plus IX. of happy memory, and has for its end the education of missionaries for the "Dark Continent" of Africa.

The missionaries of this Society have laboured with much fruit for over forty years in many parts of Africa. The most abandoned and self-sacrificing missions get their preference, such for instance as the benighted Idolators of Dahomey, Ashantee, Yoruba, Niger and the Delta regions.

Two houses of the Society presently exist in Ireland, St. Joseph's Apostolic College, Cork, and the Novittate for the Sisters at Blackrock Road, also in the same City. The College is for the training of students in Classics, so as to enable them to enter the higher studies at the Mother house in France. Young ladies who aspire to become nuns in the Society receive the necessary training to equip them for their holy calling at the Blackrock Road establishment.

The essential qualifications for aspirants to the Apostolate are; (1) Determination to persevers in whatever sphere is allotted to them. (2) Sound constitution, free from hereditary disease. (3) Ability to acquire the necessary studies. (4) Being within the standard age, which is from 15 to 23 years.

The venerable Clergy and Religious Teachers of the Country are carneatly invited to extend their valuable co-operation, by recommending pious youths and maidens whom they deem worthy for such an inestimable vocation.

Every Christian who takes to heart the honour of God and the Salvation of immortal souls, will recognise the necessity of supporting such a meritorious work as evangelizing their outcast brethren in Africa. Those who cannot consecrate their lives to this end may partake of the labours and merits of the missioners by supplying material assistance towards the education of poor but deserving students and nuns for this Society. The late Sovereign Pontiff Leo XIII. bestowed his Apostolic Benediction upon the College and upon all those who support it.

A sum of £500 is sufficient to educate perpetually a young missionary, and those who contribute towards the foundation of such a Burse will be remembered in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass twice every week in perpetuity. All contributions, however small, are gratefully received, as the expenses are great.

Aspirants to the Priesthood or Sisterhood of the Society are asked to communicate with the Very Rev. J. Zimmerman, St. Joseph's Apostolic College, Cork, who will gladly give every facility to worthy candidates.

Explanatory Statement.

St. Laurence's Catholic Home has been established for the double purpose of providing a Home in Dublin for Catholic District Nurses for the sick poor of the City, and of training Catholic Nurses for district work in the country.

The Nurses employed by the Home have had full Hospital training, in addition to the special training required for district visiting. They work under the direction of the local doctors, and go to the houses of the sick poor to whom they are sent, and do such work there as the nature of the case may require, thus bringing the benefits of skilled nursing and attendance within the reach of those who are unable to go into Hospitals.

Cases may be sent in by Doctors, Clergy, District Visitors, Sisters of Charity, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, and others who are working among the poor, to the Superintendent, at 34, Rutland-square, Dublin, who will at once send a Nurse to attend the case.

The services of the Nurse are given gratis. Those, however, who are not of the very poor, and who have availed themselves of St. Laurence's Nurses, are invited to contribute towards the funds of the Home. The smallest contributions are thankfully accepted.

Donations and Subscriptions are urgently needed, and gifts of linen, surgical and medical appliances, letters for convalescent homes, etc.. will be specially acceptable, and may be sent to the Superintendent, at 34, Rutland-square, Dublin.

The following districts are now supplied by the Queen Victoria Jubilee Institute with Catholic Nurses, who were trained in St. Laurence's Home-Achill Island, Anagry, Ardee, Ardmore, Armagh, Arranmore, Aughrim, Ballydroy, Bealadangan, Bray, Bruff, Buncrana, Cahir, Cappoquin, Carna, Carrick-on-Suir, Cashel, Castlebellingham, Castleknock, Charleville, Clonmel Cushendall, Dalkey, Drogheda, Dublin, Dundalk, Galway, Geesala, Glengariff, Howth, Inverin, Kenmare, Kilommon-Erris, Killarney, Killorgin, Limerick, Lixnaw, Mallow, Miltown, Mount-Talbot, Naas, Newbridge, New Ross, Newry, Oughterard, Portmarnock, Rathfarnham, Swords, Waterford.

LITTLE SISTERS of the ASSUMPTION,

Aursing Sisters of the Sick Poor, CAMDEN STREET, DUBLIN.

THE Little Sisters of the Assumption devote themselves exclusively and gratuitously to Nursing the Sick Poor in their own homes, both day and night. They take care of the home and of the children, and make themselves practically the servants of the poor and of their families, in order to win them to God.

The Sisters also give Religious Instruction.

They have several houses abroad. The Mother House is in Paris.

Special Prayers and Holy Communions are offered by the Community, and also the prayers of their Poor, for all Benefactors, and for the intentions commended to them verbally or by letter.

The Little Sisters of the Assumption, not being allowed by the Rule of their Order to undertake any remunerative works, earnestly appeal to the charity of the generous to help them to carry on their beloved work in Dublin

Subscriptions, donations, food, and all kinds of clothing for men, women, and children, also all articles useful for the Sick, Surgical and Medical Appliances, are very earnestly solicited, and will be most gratefully received by

THE SUPERIORESS.

J. M. J.

THE

Little Sisters of the Poor.

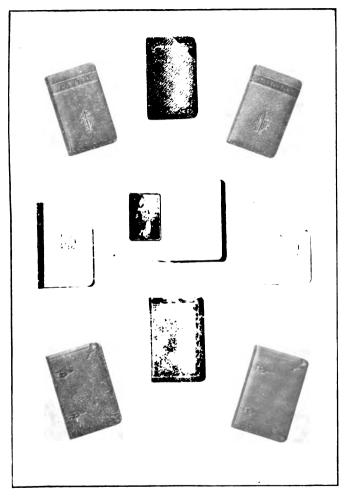

HE Little Sisters of the Poor provide homes for the aged poor of both sexes; feed them, clothe them, and minister to all their wants. They have no funds or income whatever. They support the old people, under their care, by whatever public charity affords them, collecting alms daily from house to house, in money, food, old clothing, or anything that may be offered them.

The Institution was founded in 1840, at St. Servan, in Brittany (France), and has gradually spread over France, Belgium, Switzerland, Ireland, England, Scotland, Spain, Italy, Hungary, Turkey, America, Africa, Asia, Australia. The Little Sisters of the Poor have now over 300 homes, containing above 44,000 old people, who have thus found a comfortable home for their declining years, Twenty-six of these houses are in the United Kingdom.

The Little Sisters have three houses in Ireland: St. Patrick's Home, Kilmainham, Dublin; St. Mary's, Montenotte, Cork; St. Joseph's, Manor Hill, Waterford. St. Patrick's House is also the residence of the Mother Provincial.

Subscriptions and donutions will be thankfully received by the Mother Superior of any of the Houses. Bequests to the Little Sisters of the Poor must be in goods, in money, in large or small amounts, or in securities immediately convertible into money.

ADDRESS-SISTER SUPERIOR.

St. Vincent's Orphanage, North William Street, Dublin.

NAZARETH HOUSE,

BALLYNAFEIGH, BELFAST.

THE SISTERS OF NAZARETH provide a home for Aged Men and Women, also Orphan and Destitute Children who would otherwise be left helpless on the world.

This Institution is supported by the Contributions of the charitable public in money, food, and left-off clothing collected daily by the Sisters.

The number of inmates at present is even more than in previous years, and the Sisters are often most reluctantly compelled to refuse admission to cases in every way deserving of charity for want of proper space.

There are now in the Houses over 600 Inmates, whose ages range from three to eighty years, so that helpless old age and innocent childhood is alike sheltered and provided for out of limited resources, but which by the aid of Divine Providence has never yet been found to fail.

NAZARETH LODGE. HOME for BOYS,

Ravenhiil Road, Belfast.

As the former House proved quite inadequate for the many pressing applications received, the Sisters were obliged to erect a large New Building which cost £10,000. It was formally opened on October 15th, 1905.

To clear off this heavy debt, the Sisters once more appeal to their kind and generous benefactors, feeling assured that any aid they may render will be abundantly repaid by God.

Prayers are offered several times daily in both Homes for the spiritual and temporal welfare of benefactors living, and for the repose of the souls of those who are deceased.

Subscriptions and Donations will be gratefully received by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, the Clergy of the City and Diocese, or by the Superiors of Nazareth House, Ballynafeigh, and Nazareth Lodge, Ravenhill Road, Belfast.

Mater Infirmonum Yospital,

CRUMLIN ROAD, BELFAST.

UNDER THE CARE OF THE SISTERS OF MERCY.

Established for the Rollef of the Sick Poor without distinction of Creed.

Supported by Voluntary Contributions.

Aid denied to no one as far as funds and accommodation permit.

The New Hospital Building was formally opened by His Eminence Cardinal Logue, on 23rd April, 1900, and affords accommodation to 160 patients.

The benefits conferred by it are not confined to Belfast. but are freely and liberally bestowed on the Sick of the neighbouring Districts. 167,381 Patients have received treatment.

To be the means of restoring a father or mother to a helpless family is a blessing which cannot be over-estimated.

Where can Charity have freer or fuller scope than in maintaining a Hospital for the relief of the Sick of every Class and Creed?

How powerfully and eloquently it appeals in silent language to the sympathy of every kind and benevolent man or woman who has a heart to feel or an alms to bestow.

This Hospital has no endowment. Funds are urgently needed to maintain, and fully develop the sphere of usefulness for which the Hospital Building is so well adapted.

The House and lands known as Orlands, near Carrickfergus, which have been purchased by the Most Rev. Dr. Henry, will be a most useful auxiliary for the perfecting and developing of the Hospital.

Subscriptions, donations and legacies earnestly solicited and will be thankfully received by the Most Rev. Dr. Henry, Lord Bishop of the Diocese; by the Priests of the Diocese; and by the Sisters of Mercy at the Hospital.

NAZARETH HOUSE,

DERRY.

Home for Aged and Infirm Poor and Orphan Children.

The above well-known Institution affords a permanent home to the Aged and Infirm Poor of both sexes.

Orphan children are received, educated, and maintained until old enough to earn their own livelihood.

The Home has no funds, but depends entirely on the alms, food, and clothing collected by the Sisters.

Owing to the building of the New Wing, the Sisters have incurred a heavy debt, for which they earnestly appeal to their kind friends and benefactors to lesson the pressing burden by their generous contributions.

The prayers of the Community and inmates are daily offered for all benefactors.

At present there are in the Home 300 Poor.

Aged men and women are received irrespective of creed, as also those who come daily for food or medicine.

Subscriptions or Donations will be gratefully received by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, the Clergy of the City, or by

WHEN ORDERING A NEW POCKET BREYLARY ASK FOR THE

NEW POCKET EDITION OF THE BREYIARY,

Edited by the Rev. Dr. MAGRATH.

The Cheapest, most Complete & most Convenient Edition published

The Publishers confidently claim that this Edition will be found to possess a number of important practical advantages which will be sought for in vain in any pocket edition hitherto (so far as they know) published. Amongst these are the following:—

1. The volume for each quarter of the ecclesiastical year contains all such offices—whether of the General Calendar or of the Irish Supplement—as can be transferred to that quarter from any previous quarter or quarters. Two volumes (not always consecutive), or even three volumes (as in 1897, 1892, 1889, etc.) of other editions (including the latest and best) would be not infrequently necessary where one volume of this edition will suffice! And this is likeliest to occur in September—perhaps the favourite month for a holiday.

2. The pealms of Matins for the Officia Votiva per hebdo-madam are, when special, given in full.

3. The Psalms of Matins for Offices having special psalms, (which are mostly the Offices of the greater Feasts) are given in full in a far larger number of cases than any other miniature edition gives them.

4. The Psalms of Matins for all other Offices—whether of the General Calendar (excepting, for obvious reasons, the Tenebrae Offices), or of the Iriah Supplement—are, when special, given almost in full, all psalms (excepting a few of inordinate length) being repeated unless they occur consecutively or almost consecutively elsewhere.

5. The greatest pains have been taken to facilitate the making of commemorations, especially in cases presenting special difficulty. In all the longer Offices the oratio is given at First Vespers as well as at Lauds.

• • The Publishers have received many very flattering letters from the Hierarchy and Clergy in reference to this Breviary.

"Messrs. Gill & Son's Pocket Edition of the Breviary is a marvel of a cheapness, convenience, and completeness. It possesses many important features which cannot fail to enhance its value as a portable Vacation Breviary. . . . The arrangement, too, of the Psalms and of the Commemorations, supplies many desirable facilities, while the get up, as regards the type and paper is enough to satisfy the most fastidious of readers." CATECHISM:

DOCTRINAL, MORAL, HISTORICAL, AND LITURGICAL, BY THE REV. PATRICK POWER.

In two volumes, price 7s. 6d., bound in fancy cloth, CATECHISM OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE,

Familiarly Explained,

By the REV. PATRICK POWER, P.P., Cappoquin, With the Imprimatur of Cardinal Manning, Archbishop of Westminster.

Letter from his Eminence Cardinal Cullen, and from nearly all the Prolates in Ireland, strongly recommending the work, are inserted in the commencement of Vol. I.

"This Catechism, with wonderful precision and clearness, opens a vast field of information to the reader, in fact, leaves very few questiors untouched, and in the explanation of each, is satisfactory."—Most Rev. Patrick Dorrian, Bishop of Down and Connor.

"Well adapted for the use of upper schools and of pupil and trained teachers, for whom some such a manual was much wanted."—Right

Rev. J. Browne, Bishop of Shrewsbury.
"I consider your Catechism a beautiful and useful work—I think the best in the English language."—Rev. Thomas Longman.

"I have a large collection of books—near a thousand volumes—and there is not a work in the entire I value more than the 'Catechism:

Doctrinal and Moral;' nor do I knew any work from which I have d rived more ready and useful information."—Rev. James M'Laughlin, P.P.

"For order of arrangement, for judicious brevity, combined with sufficient fulness of matter, and for general usefulness to the missionary priest, we know of no work on the Catechiam more worthy of commendation than that of the Rev. Patrick Power. We have recommended it for some years, and I have found the ecclesiastical students under our care in college, as well as the young priests who have departed to the foreign missions, experience the greatest advantages from the use of it."—The Pastor and his People, by the Rev. Thomas J. Potter.

"After forming as mature a judgment as possible upon its merits, we have only one conclusion to arrive at, viz., that the 'Catechism: Doctrinal, Moral, Historical, and Liturgical,' is one of the finest books of its class that ever appeared in print, and one of the most instructive works that can be found in the whole range of books pertaining to Christian knowledge."—Glasgow Free Press.

"September 10th, 1904.

"It gives me much pleasure to add my testimony to the many Mr. O'Brien has received of the truly remarkable success which has attended the Hagey Treatment. I can speak from personal knowledge of two cases which, before undergoing the treatment, seemed, humanly speaking, to be absolutely hopeless, and yet in both these cases a wonderful Cure has been effected. Nor is the Cure ephemeral. In one case a period of nineteen months has elapsed, and in the other nearly a year, not only without any return to Alcoholism, but with a continued and positive aversion to Alcohol in any form. Whether this will last through their lives I know not. God grant it may; but even in this space of time the change wrought in the individual and the blessing brought to the wife and family in each of these cases have been so great that I feel it to be a public duty to express my gratitude to Mr. O'Brien and the treatment under his directions.

An Urgent Appeal.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT OLNEY.

I.—THE PAST.

- 1. The Mission of Weston Underwood existed before 1446.
- 2. It was kept up during the days of persecution.
- 3. The estate of Weston passed into Protestant hands in 1899.
- 4. The last Mass was said on St. Joseph's Day.
- 5. A new Mission was opened at Olney, near Weston.
- The Bishop of Northampton sent his Secretary, Father Carton, to re-establish the Mission.
- In time land was bought and a temporary chapel and a house were built.

II.—THE PRESENT.

- 1. A heavy debt on the Mission must be met.
- The necessary amount for the building of the Church must be raised.

III.—THE FUTURE.

- 1. Depends upon the generosity of our friends.
- Catholic Ireland, has been most generous to Olney in the past, and Father Carton hopes she will be in the future.

Offerings will be received with gratitude by—
The Right Rev. A. RIDDELL, Bishop's House, Northampton; or
Rev. Maurice Carton, Our Lady's, Olney, Bucks, England.

The Holy Father sends a special blessing to all Benefactors. Daily prayers and memento at daily Mass for all Benefactors living and dead,

ST. WINEFRIDE'S WELL, HOLYWELL

It has pleased God to grant many and Wonderful Cures through the intercession of OUR LADY AND SAINT WINEFRIDE. Those who desire to obtain a Favour or Cure, should make a Novena, and get as many as possible to join in it.

The Devotions may consist of:—

1st.—Hearing Mass daily (if possible). and.—Reciting the Rosary daily, and also 3rd.—The Litany of St. Winefride (which is sent with the water).

4th.—To approach the Sacraments at least once during the Novena.

5th.—To have a Mass said at your Parish Church on the last day of the Novena, or some other convenient day.

HOW TO USE THE WATER.

Apply each day, in the Spirit of Faith, a little of the water externally, or drink a little.

Pray fervently that God may grant the favour you ask for His greater glory, and the honour of His Blessed Mother and St. Winefride. A Bottle of Water from St. Winefride's Well will be sent immediately on receipt of Postal Order for Is., made payable to Fr. RYAN, Holywell, N. Wales. Stamps should not be sent if a Postal Order can be obtained. The address to which the Water is to be forwarded should be written clearly and in full.

As the 1s, somewhat exceeds the cost entailed in the sending of the Water, the surplus is devoted to purposes connected with the Shrine of St. Winefride, the support of the Hospice, &c., and may be considered as a small offering in honour of St. Winefride.

Those who cannot afford this donation, will receive the water on receipt of sufficient to cover the Postage.

If the Water is lost in transit, inform FR. RYAN, and an additional supply will be sent, free of cost.

"St. Winefride, most admirable Virgin, even in this unbelieving generation still miraculous, Pray for us."

ST. WINEFRIDE'S HOSPICE, HOLYWELL.

The HOSPICE is intended to supply poor Pilgrims, and those of slender means with Board and Lodging during their visit to Holywell. It is in charge of the Sisters of Charity of St. Paul. The ordinary period of stay is a week or ten days, but this time may be extended under certain conditions. Those who can afford it are charged 1s. per day for their Board and Lodging. They are also expected to pay an Entrance Fee of 2s. 6d. Those who cannot afford this are admitted at a lower rate. All, but especially the more needy ones. should bring, if possible, a note of recommendation from their Priest, Application for admittance should be made to the SUPERIORESS. or to the PARISH PRIEST, Holywell (Father Ryan).

The Hospice is a short distance from the Well, but 11 miles from the Station. A Motor Bus meets most trains, Fare, 4d.

Holywell is between Chester and Rhyl, on the London and North Western Railway. Travellers from England and Scotland (Liverpool, Manchester, etc.) will generally have to change at Chester. From Ireland (via Holyhead), change usually at Bangor and Rhyl.

A charge of 2d. is made for entrance to the Well, and 2d. more for the use of towel and bathing gown, but such as cannot afford so much will be given a free bathing ticket on application to Father Ryan.

Return 3rd Class Tickets, available for 2 months, from Dublin (North Wall) to Holywell, price 12s., may be had from May to the end of September.

PROVIDENCE (ROW) NICHT REFUCE AND HOME,

Crispin-street, Spitalfields,

LONDON, E.

Every day during the winter months in the above Night Refuge, which was founded by the late Monsignor Gilbert in 1860, nearly 300 Destitute Wanderers, men, women and children, irrespective of creed, are provided with a night's lodging, supper and breakfast, free of cost, being thereby rescued from all the dangers of the London streets at night. Every case is investigated, and further help given in many cases towards assisting in nates to start in life again.

The Charity also maintains a Free Soup Kitchen, a small Servants' Home, a Boarders' Home for Women, and a Home of Rest for Women at St. Albans.

An Urgent Appeal is made for help to continue and extend this work.

"There is no work more like the life of our Divine Lord, and of the devout women who followed Him from Galilee, nor any that is dearer to Him."-The late CARDINAL MANNING on the work of the Charity.

"Brightness, comfort, perfect order, and system—these are the characteristics of the Providence Row Night Refuge, familiarly known as 'The Dormitory,' which owes its existence to the zeal and abounding charity of the late Rev. Dr. GILBERT. . . . At night the large building is one of the sights of charitable London."—From Living London, edited by Mr. GEORGE R. SIMS

House of Providence, Durran Hill. Carlisle. Home for Penitent Women,

The Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent of Paul,

CARLISLE PLACE, VICTORIA STREET, WESTMINSTER

(Near the Victoria Station.)

Under the Patronage of the Archbishop of Westminster, and of the Rev. Father Bernard Vaughan, S.J.

THE House of Charity contains the following works: An orphanage for girls over two years of age, work-room, and a middle-class day school for girls; classes of preparation for First Communion and catechetical instruction on Sundays for girls also; a night-school for men and boys; and the daily visiting and relieving of the poor and sick of the two parishes of Westminster, one of the most destitute parts of London.

As these works are supported by voluntary offerings, and the greater number of the children are entirely left on the Sister's hands, they are compelled to appeal for help, that they may carry on their work.

Yearly subscriptions, however small their amount, would be gladly accepted, and can be remitted to the Sister Superioress, Carlisle Place, Victoria Street, Westminster.

Plain and fine needlework executed in the work-room; also embroidery and artificial flowers for churches.

A Soup Kitchen has been opened for the benefit of the poor of the two parishes, for which subscriptions in kind or money are most earnestly requested.

St. Pelagia's Homes for Destitute Girls

Administrators: PHILIP B. ABRAHAM, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, I, Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn; MISS M. M. GEE, 6 Longridge Road, Earl's Court, S.W.

Managers: THE SISTERS SERVANTS OF THE SACRED HEARTS OF JESUS AND MARY.

Bankers: LONDON AND COUNTY BANK, KENSINGTON.

Hon. Treasurer: Philip B. ABRAHAM.

These Homes which are for the benefit and reformation of girls who have lost their character, are situated at 1 & 2, Church Row, Limehouse, E.; 25 Bickerton Road, Highgate, N.; 684 High Road, Tottenham; 654 Rotherhithe Street, S.E.

The Limehouse and Rotherhithe Branches are for girls who have been leading an irrelguar life, or who have given way to drink. The Highgate Branch is for girls and their infants (first cases only). They can enter the Home free of charge when the child is only a fortnight old. The Tottenham Branch is for housing and educating these little ones after the age of two years to the age of ten years.

All these Homes receive girls of this class without payment, but on condition that they contribute to the earning power of the Homes by working at the various laundries, the only exception being at Tottenham, where a small charge is made for the children, as they cannot work for themselves.

Subscriptions are much needed, and may be sent to the Hon. Sec., Miss M. M. Gee, 6 Longridge Road, Earl's Court, S.W., from whom further information may be obtained.

PLEASE READ THIS CAREFULLY.

- 1. There are now in the Homes over 800 children.
- 2. These children are rescued from poverty, misery and vice.
- 3. This number is but a fraction compared to the number applying for admission.
- 4. There is no greater charity than to help those who cannot help themselves.
- 5. These poor children cannot help themselves; they are the most helpless, the most innocent, the most defenceless of all.
- 6. Quite two-thirds of the children in our Homes are of Irish parentage or extraction.
- 7. Very many of these little ones would have been lost to the Catholic Faith but for the timely intervention of our Society.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED.

£13,000 is needed for the year 1907. There is no assured source of income; we are entirely dependent upon the generosity of the charitable.

In a Brief dated the 17th February, 1906, His Holiness Pius X. says:—

"To each member of the Society, and to all who will support its most excellent work, We, in testimony of Our good will and as a token of heavenly favours, most lovingly grant Our Apostolic Benediction."

All donations will be most gratefully acknowledged by the Rey. E. BANS, 337 Harrow Road, London, W.

Che Rosary Crusade.

An Association for the Relief of the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

This Crusade has been repeatedly blessed and approved of by the present happily reigning Pontiff, Pius X, since he first issued his Special Brief, in its behalf, on the 8th December, 1903.

His Holiness Leo XIII, of happy memory, originally sanctioned the formation of this Association and approved of it, and blessed it on the 12th July, 1893.

The late Bishop of Plymouth, William Vaughan, and his successor, Bishop Graham, have fully endorsed the approbation of the Sovereign Pontiffs in regard to "The Rosary Crusade," and willingly permitted its erection, and furthered its object, in their diocese.

The Rosary Crusade for the Holy Souls is an Association of Members of the Rosary Confraternity, who voluntarily undertake to say the fifteen Mysteries of the Rosary, each week, for the Souls in Purgatory, whilst striving to gain for them the great and extra-ordinary Indulgences of the Confraternity.

The Annual Subscription is One Shilling only, and by means of these Subscriptions, thousands of Masses are celebrated for the Crusaders, both living and dead. Moreover, a Mass in perpetuity is celebrated every Saturday at the Lady Altar, in the Shrin: of the Rosary Crusade, for all the Associates.

For particulars of this Association, and for enrolment as Members, application must be made to the Lady Abbess, Syon Abbey, Chudleigh, South Devon.

This is the only centre of the Rosary Crusade for Catholics throughout the world. Its members are now to be found in every quarter of the globe, and of every nation under the sun. The devotion is an essentially Catholic one, and, therefore, it has become so universal.

A Magazine is published monthly, in connection with the above Crusade, and is the special organ of the Association. Its distinguishing title is: The Poor Souls' Friend and St. Joseph's Monitor. It is specially devoted to the interests of the suffering souls in Purgatory. Original articles on the state of the faithful departed are exclusively written for this periodical. In addition to these articles, it contains essays on various subjects from the pen of writers of distinguished fame in literary circles The chief works of the learned Benedictine Father, Dom Adam Hamilton, saw the light, for the first time, in the pages of The Poor Souls' Friend. He continues to edit the historical series. His labours have been highly commended by Catholic, as well as non-Catholic journals,

The Magazine only costs 1s. 6d. per annum, post free, payable in advance. Specimen copies sent on application. A single copy 11d. Halfpenny stamps preferred when the sum is too small for a postal order of sixpence.

Cheques and postal orders pavable to A. Jocelyn.

the infirm and superannuated Clergy of the Diocese of Shrewsbury, and hence it commends itself to the charity of the Catholic Public. In return, Mass is said monthly by each of the Clergy who are Members of the Fund for the benefactors both living and dead. Any person may become a Benefactor by a donation of £10, for which forty Special Masses will be said; or by a donation of £5, for which twenty Special Masses will be said; or by a smaller contribution (not less, however, than £1), which will entitle the donor to share in the monthly Masses for ever. The Special Masses will be said at once, or deferred until the death of the donor, as he or she may direct.

Other particulars may be had by application to the Treasurer, Rev. C. Gilles, Newport, Salop; or to the Secretary, Rev. J. H. Roche, Knutsford, Latchford, Warrington.

FORM OF LEGACY TO THE FUND.

3 bequeatb to the Rev. Chichele Giles, of Newport, Salop, Treasurer of the Society called the "Shrewsbury Secular Clergy Fund," or to the Treasurer of the same for the time being, the sum of £, free of legacy duty, for the benefit of that Fund; and I earnestly hope that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for the repose of my soul: but I do declare that this expression of my hope shall not be construed as a condition or trust attached to the same Legacy; and that the compliance with this my hope shall not be deemed necessary to give effect to the same Legacy.

CANON CASEY'S WORKS.

A BOOK WORTH HAVING.

CANON CASEY'S works containing the author's Temperance, Doctrinal, Devotional, Philosophical and humorous Poems, forming a handsome book of over 1,000 pages, are now offered, cloth, lettered, red edges, for 6s net. The author, who took the Pledge from Father Mathew, over 65 years ago, and whose labours in the Temperance cause for the past 30 years is well known, has, owing to age and infirmity, ceased to write or publish any more books, and offers his friends and patrons what remains in stock of last editions in one thick handsome book. The collection he In stock of last editions in one thick handsome book. The collection he trusts will be found useful to Temperance advocates in their crusade against drink, while theidoctrinalland devotional-poems which attained the high praise of Cardinal Newman, of His Grace Dr. Healy, Archbishop, of the late Dr. Lynch. of Kildare, and Dr. MacCormack of Galway, and other members of the Hierarchy, will find, he hopes, a welcome in Catholic Colleges and Convents, and many of the homes of the Clergy and laity, and be a source of pleasure and profit, and, as the author of "The Poets of Ireland" testifies, of no small share of humour. Here is what he has written of Canon Casey in his forthcoming work. The Geographical Distribution of Irish Talont: "—The only other Sligo Poet I wish to refer to is Canon Casey, whose poems, whether on temperance or pious subjects, have been deservedly popular. The humour of some of his verses is genuine and racy, and he has put into genlal were many great truths and wise reflections.

A NEW WORK BY MOTHER MARY LOYOLA

JESUS OF NAZARETH

The Story of His Life told to Children

By MOTHER MARY LOYOLA, of the Bar Convent, York. Edited by FATHER THURSTON, S.J. Large crown 8vo. With twenty-four full-page Illustrations. Price 5s. net (postage 5d.)

"THE aim proposed is to strengthen faith in our Lord's Divinity and to draw the hearts of children to Him by a personal love. To do this within the limits assigned, it has seemed better to omit a certain amount of matter rather than sacrifice detailed descriptions of leading facts, which by impressing the imagination leave a vivid picture in the mind."—AUTHOR'S NOTE.

DECREES of the VATICAN COUN-CIL. Edited, with an Introduction, by the Rev. Vincent McNabb, O.P. Demy 8vo. 2s.

Extract from Father McNabb's Introduction

In presenting to the English-reading public "The Decrees of the Vatican Council" we make no apology for calling it the "best book" and most valuable religious relic left to the twentieth century by the nineteenth. It is somewhat surprising that collections of the "hundred best books," which usually begin with the Bible and generally include Marcus Aurelius, should give no place to the Acts of the General Councils; though mere literary works have done little beyond filling vacant hours, and these Acts have renewed the face of the earth.

RELIGIOUS WORSHIP and Some Defects in Popular Devotions. By Mgr BONO-MELLI, BISHOP OF CREMONA. With the Author's Portrait. 2s. 6d. net (postage 3d.)

THE Bishop of Cremona, in his letter to the Translator, says: "Only by the slow work of religious instruction will it become possible to correct, readjust and destroy what is excessive, wrong, senseless and puerile in certain forms of popular devotions. But the doctrine of the Church, let us own is reasonable, beautiful and noble; and I think, if it is represented to them as I now represent it, cannot prove displeasing even to our brethren who are not Catholics.

"I rejoice then that you should become the interpreter of a Catholic and Italian Bishop to your fellow countrymen in order that certain difficulties may be removed from their minds which now keep them separated from the Church of Rome."

A SELECTION from the VERSES OF JOHN B. TABB. Made by ALICE MEYNELL. In Fancy Binding. Specially suitable for a Present. 2s. 6d. net (postage 3d.)

THOSE who overlook the little volume of songs collected by Mrs Meynell from the work of Father Tabb will miss a good thing. To Mrs Meynell the making of this selection must have been a labour of love, and she has done it admirably.—Academy.

TYBURN CONFERENCES: Oxford,

Douay, Tyburn. Conferences on the Martyrs of the English Seminaries. Delivered at Tyburn Convent by DOM BEDE CAMM, O.S.B. With Frontispiece. 2s. 6d. net (postage 3d.)

THESE Conferences deal chiefly with the martyrs of the Seminaries who suffered at Tyburn; though in one of them I have dealt at some length on the martyrs of the laity who were the glorious fruits of their zealous apostolate. . . . It may well be that the Church in England is at this time on the threshold of a new period of persecution, in which she will have to struggle for her very existence. The faith of her little ones is threatened by legislation, and there seems to be a distinct tendency in the democracy to follow the lead of France in dealing with the religious questions. In this conflict we can have no better encouragement than the example of the martyrs of England.—Extract from Introduction.

- "THIS is a book which sets forth in a plain simple way the reasons for submitting to the authority of the Church. It is not a learned treatise, but a simple commonsense explanation of the need we have of a guide in religious matters and of who that guide is."—Tablet.

The Church & Kindness to Animals

Illustrated with delightful Reproductions of Old Master Pictures of Animals & Saints

2s. 6d. net (postage 3d.)

- 1. Condemnation of Bull-Fights.
- 2. Animals in the Lives and Legends of Saints.
- 3. A Cloud of Modern Witnesses.

"This volume is a kind of Anthology intended to show indirectly the mind of the Church regarding animals, by illustrating the spirit of the Saints, its most authentic exponents, in their relations with the lower creatures of God. It is a noteworthy collection full of anecdotes which have a common fragrance of simple charity. It will end for ever the era under which it has been possible to accuse Catholics of callousness to the sufferings of the dumb creation, and the blessing which Pius X has bestowed upon it during its passage through the press will perpetuate and confirm the work that it is destined to accomplish. For from its first page to its last it is the Church's authentic blessing on the beast."

The Garden of Roses of Our Lady

The Excellences of the Rosary and the Best

Method of Reciting it

By FATHER MESCHLER, S.J.

Demy 16mo, 2s. 6d.

FREE WILL & FOUR ENGLISH PHILOSOPHERS: Hobbes, Locke, Hume and Mill. By FATHER JOSEPH RICKABY, S.J. 3s. 6d. net (postage 3d.)

"This is a book of great value. Within reasonable space, and in language that a person of average intelligence may easily understand, one of the most important philosophical questions of the day is very convincingly discussed. It is a book that every educated Catholic should possess two copies of—one to lend and one to read slowly and carefully. The author's style is bright, clear and engaging, and his handling of an abstruse question is that of one who has considered his subject from every point of view, and has given a long and patient hearing to 'the other side."—Messenger.

MARY IN THE GOSPELS: or, Lectures on the History of our Blessed Lady, as recorded by the Evangelists. By the Very Rev. J. SPENCER NORTHCOTE, D.D. New Edition, pp. 344. 3s. 6d.

A MODERN PILGRIM'S PRO-GRESS. With an Introduction by FATHER SEBASTIAN BOWDEN. Second Edition. 6s. Post freeto advance cash-purchasers for 4s. 10d.

THE Book is written in a captivating style, and the thoughts are expressed in clear, forcible language.... Catholics will rise from the perusal of this work, realizing as they may never have done before the value of their faith. Non-Catholics will find in it the solution of many of their difficulties.—Universe.

LORD ACTON AND HIS CIRCLE.

Edited by the Right Rev. ABBOT GASQUET, O.S.B. Containing nearly 500 finely-printed pages, with an Engraved Portrait. Price 15s. net.

"No one could have come under the influence of Lord Acton without feeling that he was a very great man. His majestic and spotless character, true and sound to the core, was responsive at once to the loftiest self-sacrifice and to the humblest call of duty. . The Letters contained in the present volume are of surpassing interest. They exhibit Lord Acton in the plenitude of his power, working with heroic zeal and energy for the intellectualization of the Church in England. Some day or other Lord Acton will be recognized as a great teacher, a great Catholic and a great Englishman."—Saturday Review.

SPIRITUAL CONFERENCES OF

ST FRANCIS DE SALES. Translated into English from the new and authentic Edition of the Saint's Works, with several Additions and Supplementary Notes, under the supervision of Abbot GASQUET, O.S.B., and the late Dom BENEDICT MACKEY, O.S.B. 6s. (post free to advance cash buyers, 4s. 10d.)

This posthumous work of St Francis contains a simple summary of his maxims, and furnishes a just idea of his "Spirit." "These Conferences," wrote Wiseman, "will be read, we trust, with pleasure, we are sure with profit, by devout persons living in the world, by clergy and laity, the former of whom will find in them invaluable principles and advice for the guidance of consciences, while the latter cannot fail to derive from their study consolation, encouragement and direction."

Can be used as . : Desks, Tables, or Backed Seats. Seats. Fitted with patent Standard Wheels, which come into action only when the Desk is lifted at end or side.

by this means the Desk can be moved into any position without injury to the floor and without the noise usual with Desks not provi-ded with wheels.

The "TRUE" DESK Reversible. with Patent Standard Wheels.

From PROESSOR HENLY, Kildare Place (Dublin) Practising Schools. March, 1904.

As Professor of Method it gives me pleasure to be able to state the entire satisfaction which the "True" Desks have given.

Though in use here for sixteen or more years they are still in perfect order.

The design is admirable, while the fact that they can be adapted to the uses of Desks, Tables, or Seats, and can be easily moved by the wheel attachment, adds immensely to their utility, there is no clumsiness about them, the workmanship is perfect as the above time testifies.

They are "True" Desks—all that desks should be.

Signed, J. HENLY.

THEORY AND PRACTICE OF THE CONFESSIONAL.

A Guide in the Administration of the Sacrament of Penance. By Dr. E. Schieler, Professor of Moral Theology. Edited by Rev. H. J. Heuser, D.D., Professor of Theology, Overbrook Seminary. Introduction by the Most Rev. S. G. Messmer, D.D. Second edition. 4to. Net, 14s.

"In this work, the missionary, the confessor, the director of consciences, finds not only all that he was taught in his moral theology, but he finds much, very much more; for the author has made the subject a specialty, which leads him to throw light upon every phase of the confessor's difficult task. And the whole matter is set forth in the language used daily in the confessional and with the penitents. The priest on the mission no longer regards the study of moral theology as a discipline by which to train his mind to the legal habits required in the sacred tribunal, but he views it as a practical exercise of his judicial functions in his daily pastoral life.

"In conclusion we should say that the book is worth the careful study of every confessor, who will find it of invaluable assistance in his twofold duty of safeguarding the sacrament and advancing the cause of Christ in the souls of men."—The Messenger.

Sanctuary Gil.

For years repeatedly commended for purity and good burning by the authorities of the Church.

THE recommendations we continue to receive, added to the ever increasing sale we are favoured with, proves our assertion "that the Sanctuary Oil we supply is the finest obtainable." Still, with this Oil, certain conditions must be complied with in order to obtain perfect success. We herewith offer a few suggestions, which, if faithfully adhered to, will remove the difficulty often experienced in keeping the Sanctuary Lamp alight.

- No. 1.—For Altar purposes, No. 1 SANCTUARY OIL should always be used. It is a pure Vegetable Oil, and it repeatedly proves itself to burn more satisfactorily than any other quality.
- No. 2.—On no account should water be put into the Sanctuary Glass with this Oil nor should any other Oil be mixed with it.
- No. 3.—If the dirty dregs of the Sanctuary Glass are put into the store of Oil, the Oil will cease to do its work satisfactorily.
- No. 4.—When replenishing the lamps, see that the wick is dry and firmly fixed in the holder. The glass must be both dry and perfectly clean.
- No. 5.—The size of the light may be regulated by the size of the S-day Wicks used,
 No. 3 giving the largest flame. No. 2 gives a good light and answers well for all purposes.
- No. 6.— We strongly recommend the FREE CANS system, as it saves the Customers the annoyance and expense of returning empties, and also ensures them against having Oil spoilt by rust, new Cans only being used.

 *We recommend the use of the Oil Store Can.

CHEMICAL LABORATORY.

MEDICAL SCHOOL, CECILIA STREET, DUBLIN,

On August 23rd I paid a surprise visit to the Beeswax Candle Factory of Messrs. HAYES & FINCH, Eustace Street, Dublin, and took one sample of sixty-five per cent. beeswax mixture, and one sample of candles, labelled 65 per cent. beeswax, which I have analysed with the following results:

	l a	100		Percentage of
	Specific	Acid	Ether Number.	Beeswax.	Stearic Acid.	Paraffin.
Beeswax Mixture	0.944	34	50	67	11	22
Candle	0.944	34	50	67	11	22

and am therefore of opinion that the candles sent out by this firm, stamped 65 per cent. beeswax, contain not less than 65 per cent. of beeswax.

Date, Sept. 7th, 1906.

(Signed) HUGH RYAN, M.A., D.Sc., F.R.U.I.

Professor of Chemistry.

From the Bishop of Clonfert. "Candles manufactured by HAVES & Finch, Dublin, and stamped on the side as containing 65% of Beeswax and candles containing 25% of Beeswax are hereby approved for use in this diocese, accordo ing to the diocesan instructions recently issued." etc.

Important New Work in Four Volumes—Now being issued in Monthly Parts at 1s. net; by Post, 1s. 2d.

A Compendium of Catechetical Instruction.

Edited by the Rev. JOHN HAGAN, Vice-Rector of the Irish College, Rome.

WORKS INCLUDED-

- (a) A Course of Catechetical Instruction, being an English adaptation of the celebrated Italian work, "Corso di Istruzioni Catechistiche," by the Very Rev. Angelo Raineri, sometime Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Milan;
- (b) A new Translation of the "Catechismus Romanus" (the Catechism of the Council of Trent);
- (c) A Translation of the Catechism recently ordered by the Pope for adoption in the Province of Rome, and recommended by His Holiness for use in all Italy.

When completed The Compendium of Catechetical Instruction will be in Four Volumes, corresponding to the parts of the Roman Catechism. In the issuing of the Monthly Parts, however, it is considered advisable to commence with the Second Volume, which treats of the Sacraments, so that the order of the subjects dealt with in the Book may coincide with the present stage of the Catechetical Instructions in most churches. This arrangement will in no way interfere with the continuity of the work, as each Volume is practically a separate treatise. The Third, Fourth, and First Volumes will follow in due course. The first Monthly Part was published in November, 1906.

PRICES

Bookbinding

THE following Prices are for thoroughly good, strong and well-finished Bindings, executed in Browne and Nolan's own workshops, by highly skilled workmen. Any book that is worth binding, is worth binding well. "Scamped or "botched" binding, apart from its ugly and vulgar appearance, is worse than useless, as it is destitute of strength, flexibility, and permanence, and hence fails to secure what is the raison d'etre of binding at all, the safe preservation of the volume. More than this, a book bound thus faultily, is rendered, by the cutting down of the margin, unfit for being properly re-bound.
